Are You Seeking a Good Piano?

In accordance with our custom we have placed on sale all slightly used, and odd style new pianos, at special clearance figures.

Grand Pianos, Upright Pianos, and Player Pianos of nearly all prominent makes are represented. There are many Steinway and Lyon & Healy instruments in this collection. Genuine Pianola Pianos are also included.

Here is a genuine opportunity to obtain a good piano, in perfect playing condition, at a small price. Some of these instruments are marked as low as $200.

This Is Our Annual Sale of Slightly Used Pianos

Four repair shops have been busy for weeks preparing for this yearly event.

In all of our experience we have never seen used Player Pianos put in such perfect condition as the instruments now to be found on our floors. Many of them show so little signs of use that it is hard to believe they have ever been taken out of the salesrooms. All music lovers are cordially invited to make a visit of inspection.

The marked saving which can be made here now, as well as the altogether unusual opportunity for selection, will surely justify many in coming to a decision on the piano question this week. A list of these special values will be mailed on request. Small monthly payments may be arranged. On slightly used instruments of the finest grades, especially liberal terms will be made.

UNITED EVANGELICAL

J. H. Keagle, Pastor
There were great congregations morning and evening. The Sunday school is increasing by one or two every Sunday. It is a serious matter as to what we are going to do to house all our young people. It will soon be graduation day and quite a bunch of children will come out of the primary department, and an equal number will be ready to graduate from the cradle roll to the primary. We have nearly 50 on the cradle roll which augurs well for the future of the school. This congregation evidently does not believe in "race suicide." The pastor will preach morning and evening next Sunday. In the morning his subject will be "A Royal Priesthood and its Sacrifices," 1 Peter 2:5, and for the evening, "Going a-Fishing," Luke 5: 1-11. You will be graciously welcomed to all these services. You will be a visitor but once. You will like it so well you will want to come again.

EBENEZER EVANGELICAL

Rev. R. W. Schloerb, Pastor
"Fathers' Day" was observed with appropriate exercises last Sunday, May 16. Much was added by the beautiful solo sung by Mrs. Himmel. Prof. E. Himmel of Northwestern college preached morning and evening. Rev. R. W. Schloerb, discharged overseas army chaplain and newly appointed pastor to this congregation, is expected to arrive here Saturday and fill the pulpit next Sunday morning at 11 a. m. Everyone is cordially invited to participate in the services. The Sunday school topic will be a discussion of the world emergency.

YOUNG WOMEN'S LEAGUE

In spite of the cold weather, Corps 2 enjoyed a hare and hound chase on Thursday afternoon. Friday afternoon Mrs. Oleson was unable to take charge of the sewing class. Sunday afternoon the Business Girls' club entertained the wounded soldiers from the Fort. Music and games were enjoyed and a hot supper was served. Monday and Wednesday evenings the H. S. girls meet to rehearse their plays to be given Friday, June 4. The proceeds from the plays will be used to send their delegate to the High school girls' conference at Dewey Lake, Mich. The Royal Neighbors will hold their regular meeting at the community house Thursday night and the Boy Scouts will meet Friday night.

GARDEN WORK

Do you find that your back creaks and your legs wobble when you wield the spade or the hoe after years of work in an office, Mr. Middle Aged Man? If so, do not necessarily feel that you are a candidate for membership in the Old Folks' society. You have probably noticed that in any form of exercise to which you are accustomed, you can do just as much as you ever could. If you have always walked five or ten miles a day, you can do it still. But if the hoe and spade bother you, it is because you have allowed the hoe and spade muscles to get rusty as you sat in your padded chair. If you allow this condition to continue, you will become an old man prematurely. But if you get out in the garden daily for a moderate effort, you will find the amount you can do will gradually increase. It will prolong your life, enlarge your lungs, give you better sleep, and increase your working ability in your calling.

RAVINA SCHOOL

The pupils of the first and second grades entertained the children of kindergarten age of Ravina at a party on Tuesday afternoon. There were about eighty little ones present. Each child was given a basket of candy, the baskets having been previously made by the children. Games were played and a most delightful time was enjoyed by all.

PUBLIC LIBRARY

FOLLOW THE BIRDS!

Identify them, read about them more than you have observed, get books about birds at the public library. A special exhibition of books on birds has been placed near the west window of the Children's room. They are for everyone. Take some home with you. The public library is open every day except Sunday from 9 to 12, 1 to 6 and 7 to 9 in the evening.

"Tarzan, the Untamed," is the seventh and latest book of the famous Tarzan adventure books. They are written with tremendous suspense, a vivid imagination which borders on the melodramatic, and are altogether "different." These books have had such tremendous sale that book stores have been unable to obtain copies enough to supply the selling demand. For the tired business man, they are a tonic for they take one out of the everydayness of things. You can worry about nothing else when you read a Tarzan book, unless it be that someone else may get your book when you have to stop reading long enough to eat and sleep. The series in the order of publication is:

1. Tarzan of the Apes
2. The Return of Tarzan
3. The Beasts of Tarzan
4. The Son of Tarzan
5. Tarzan of the Jewels of Opar
6. Jungle Tales of Tarzan
7. Tarzan, the Untamed
8. "Mary Marie" comes with the inherited fame of Elinor H. Porter's former popular heroes and heroines. The contents give the unique atmosphere of the book, perhaps, as well as any other word of review.
9. 1. Preface, which explains things.
10. 2. I Am Born
11. 3. Nurse Sarah's Story
12. 4. The Break is Made
13. 5. When I Am Marie
14. 6. When I Am Mary
15. 7. When I Am Both Together
16. 8. When I Am Neither One
17. 9. Which Is the Real Love Story
18. 10. Which Is the Test.

Over half the population of the United States is not in touch with public libraries or free book service of any sort. Does that mean anything to the people that are? The American Library association plans to remedy this. Will you help? If every person would give two cents each to the cause, it would be adequately financed. Bring or mail your contribution to your public library, and let Highland Park do as much as any other town. No one realized the tremendous illiteracy in this country until the drafted army men were examined. They came from the localities where there are no libraries, no free book service, or where the library service was so covered with dust and red-tape that it had better not have been. It is to remedy such conditions that prominent men and women and organizations are backing the A. L. A. with their recommendations and financial support. Will you help? Do it today! Express in terms of contribution what you think of public libraries.

Margaret Ridlon, Librarian.
