NOW OR NEVER

UP to June 15 it is safe to plant Evergreens, Vines, most of the still dormant Shrubs and Roses. We guarantee to replace all deciduous Shrubs and Vines. Evergreens and Roses we will replace at one-half the original price paid, exclusive of the planting. We are now busy with planting Window Boxes, Vases, Urns, etc., we use stock of a local firm, an expert grower, plant under personal supervision, and we will try hard to satisfy you. Since we have no control over the elements, we beg you to be a bit forbearing and give Nature a chance to make things grow. We believe we know how to arrange colors and can please the most fastidious.

Our new branch in Winnetka will take care of that locality. Lake Forest and other North Shore suburbs will be supplied from the home office. Kindly call and we will try to please you.

For good color in plantings, for good sky lines, for more good gardening and lots of it, we are as ever yours,

O. C. DOERRIER, Landscape Architect, Manager

Our New Location is 537 Central Avenue, "The Office of Service."

The freight cars must not be used to deliver food crops and factory materials until all the satin dresses and silk shirts have been transported to their suffering wearers.

Baccalaureate sermons come on now. Considering sensational reports from some of the girls' colleges, perhaps some of 'em are more interested in the tobacco laurate.

WOOD GREETS CIVIL WAR VETERAN.
Leonard Wood never misses an opportunity of greeting soldiers, not only soldiers of the recent war, but soldiers of past wars. Here he is seen visiting the old soldiers' home at Mound, Ill. The old man he is shaking hands with is a veteran of the Civil war.

CROWDS GREETING WOOD AT RAILROAD STATION.
Everywhere Leonard Wood was he is met with enthusiastic receptions. The photo shows a crowd listening to him talk from the back platform of a railroad train. He is compelled to make talks at every station where his train stops.

The time has gone by when a man could hand out a $100 bill for a $75 suit of clothes, and tell the clerk to never mind about the change.

MEMORIAL SERVICE SUNDAY AFTER

HONOR THE CITY'S H

Ceremony Held at Presbyterian Church. Interesting address by the Rev. P. C. Wolcott

The community memorial held on Sunday afternoon, at the Presbyterian church was by somewhat more than two people and was a dignified impressive occasion. It is to be noted that the auditorium crowded to its capacity in honor men and women of this city who died in the service of our

The Rev. P. C. Wolcott in dress paid tribute to the fine and splendid idealism of our and sailors and called attention to the fact that after the strain of a great war in history there is a period of relapse and slackness similar to that through we are now passing. None so proud and dangerous, however, since never was a war so terrible.

He predicted an ultimate if only we can summon the sane patriotism to the support country in the present crisis stated his conviction that we seem to have permitted the victory to slip from our grasp we shall yet recover our poise joy the blessings won by the of our soldiers.

The audience rose while those of those from our community died in service were read and tribute was paid to their sac
