A Story of Spring

A dialogue between Mr. Commuter of Highland Park and his wife

"Why so sad, tonight, my dear?"

"Because Springtime is coming and most of our friends have had flowers planted since last fall, while we have nothing in our garden coming up early in the Spring. I am getting very anxious to see our beautiful home surrounded by trees, shrubs, evergreen, flowers, roses, vines, a pool and fountain, a rustic tea house and a beautiful lawn."

"Well my dear, you do not need to be sad. It is not a serious matter that we have not had our plants started early, or shrubs planted last fall. We can have our place made beautiful within a short time."

"How could it be possible to have this work done within a short time?"

"Coming out on the 5:10 this evening, I heard of an honest, experienced landscape gardener named Fiori. I believe this man is interested in his work and could solve our problem."

"Good! As he is honest and experienced, why not call him on the phone and arrange to have him come over Sunday morning to discuss this matter with us?"

They did. And they are satisfied.

WHY DON'T YOU?

UNITED EVANGELICAL

J. H. Keagle, Pastor
 Memorial Day is past and I trust we have all payed proper respect to our heroic dead. A most pathetic sight at the great parade in Chicago on Monday was the broken remnants of a once great organization, the Grand Army of the Republic, as they tried to keep step with file and drum. Soon they will be among us no more. May the new organization, the American Legion, be as faithful and as unselfish in keeping the true spirit of patriotism before the youth of our land, as was the Grand Army of the Republic. They were "Faithful unto death."

There is great need in these days of faithfulness on the part of the professed Christian. If we will be as true to Christ's cause as the old soldier was to the Republic, his altar fires will never go out. We ought to become alarmed at the spiritual indifference of this age. The old time prayer meetings, in some localities, are a thing of the past. The "Old Guard" of the Church "advances on its knees." When the prayer meeting dies out the effectiveness of the Church will cease. The churches call you to a fuller allegiance. Come to her services.

The services in this church will be held as usual the coming Sabbath. Preaching at 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. The subject for the morning will be "The Spiritual Welfare of this Age." Eph. 6:10-18, and for the evening "Religious Indifference." Acts 17:18.

The Keystone League will meet at 6:14 led by Miss Hedwig Gieser. The subject is "What Bible-Reading Will Do for Us." Ps. 119: 97-104. The Junior League will meet at the same hour and have the same subject. Foster Keagle, leader.

Don't forget the mid-week prayer-meetings. Get your name on the "honor roll" of the church and keep it there. Senior class will meet at the home of Ernst Gieser, S. Green Bay road, and the Junior class at the church. You will be welcomed.
