

Well dress
you right from the ground up...
Right prices
too

When you see a man wearing a coat that sags, and trousers that just reach his shoe-tops — cut short, because they have been worn out at the bottom—you put him down for a failure.
You would not give him a job nor recommend him for a position. If you had him hired, would you raise his salary?
The prosperous man is always well dressed; dress well, and you will prosper.
If you are feeling purse-proud, come in and try one of our tony suits. If the pocket-book is lean, we can make you look good for a moderate sum.

BIG DOUBLE CIRCUS COMING THIS WAY

Ringling Bros. & Barnum & Bailey Combined Announce Exhibitions at Early Date

This locality has entertained many circuses, but never anything to compare with the gigantic double shows billed as Ringling Brothers and Barnum & Bailey Combined which will exhibit afternoon and night at Chicago, Grant Park, Thursday, August 12, to Sunday, August 22.
The merging of these mammoth institutions in one circus of colossal size, constitutes the amusement surprise of the century. Nothing to approach this gigantic, new circus has ever before toured America. It has been formed by merging the pick and the cream of all that was biggest and best in the two famous shows. It would be folly to attempt to enumerate its many wonders. Some idea of the enormous scale upon which features are presented may be had when it is stated that a quarter of a million pounds of elephants take part in a single act. In other words — six times as many of the big-eared giants than have ever before been seen in one main-tent exhibition. All else to be seen is in proportion. The arenic stars embrace all the world's foremost circus performers. There are three hours of novelties and big sensational acts. The menagerie is far and away the most colossal ever traveled. For instance — a herd of eight giraffes are exhibited in place of the two or three shown in the past. The great tournament which opens the main-tent program is the most magnificent thing in pageantry yet produced in America. Hundreds upon hundreds of gorgeously costumed characters and beautiful horses take part in it. The morning street parade is the longest and most brilliant ever given anywhere and offers something entirely new and novel in processional display. It is a stupendous, double-circus that baffles description.

8 POINTS OF THE ADVANCING TOWN — GOOD SCHOOLS

Probably no single feature of community life is attracting residents, more than good schools. People will go a long way to locate in a town having good educational facilities, and they will refuse a good many attractive chances rather than leave such a community.

Good schools are attained in two ways: 1. By a willingness to pay taxes enough so that competent teachers can be hired. You can't get good teachers if you won't pay them as much salary as you would to a scrub-woman.

2. By an intelligent interest on the part of the citizens. Many cities spend a lot of money on their schools, but they don't get results. Often the school money is controlled by politicians, and the educational standards are low.

You can't buy good education as you buy meat and flour. The citizens have got to put some heart and personal interest in it.

With paper so short, it is not absolutely necessary for the metropolitan Sunday papers to print more than 50 pages of stuff that no one reads.
Women with large feet are not reported opposing the move for longer skirts.

Put a NOKOI

Burner in that Coal Furnace of Yours and End Its Dirt Forever

TENDING a coal furnace is the dirtiest, meanest job in the house. You find it out every morning; every night; your wife knows it all day. Now you can end all this dirt and drudgery with Nokoi; it burns oil; fits any modern furnace—steam, hot water or hot air. It's merely necessary to remove the coal grates of your present plant and insert the burner through the ash door. Then you'll have a REAL furnace; one that leaves no dirt; regulates itself; gives you uniform heat you never get with coal.
