In a recent letter received from Mr. William Hoyt addressed to the good citizens of Deerfield, he made an urgent appeal to them as to the upkeep of the Deerfield cemetery where lay many of our departed loved ones. He has placed in trust in the Union Trust company of Chicago a fund whereby the sum of twenty-five dollars shall be paid annually for the care (or help to care) for the betterment of the cemetery (as a whole). This to be paid for a term of 99 years. If all those who have departed friends and relatives laid there would follow Mr. Hoyt's example and contribute such additional sum as may be needed to give this sacred spot an appearance of interest, it would be a place to be proud of and a credit to the town and the departed loved ones would be shown tokens of loving memories.
