NOKOL

Positive Automatic Home Heating

Was this your experience last winter? Staying in bed as late as you pleased—a warm dressing room—and complete comfort at breakfast? And starting the day in this fashion, not occasionally, but every day, without an exception? This was the experience of NOKOL users.

NOKOL burns oil—the clean, wasteless fuel. It operates without attention. And, automatically controlled by a thermostat in the living room, it maintains even temperature at all times. NOKOL utilizes your present heating system, just as it is, merely substituting an oil burner for the grates, and a tank for the dirty coal bin.

Once installed you can dispense with the servant. Or, if you take care of the furnace yourself, you can devote your time to pleasanter things.

With NOKOL supplying heat, at just the times and in just the quantity desired, you will think about your furnace no more than you do now of the dynamos that supply your electric light.

VETERAN DIES; PLAYED AT LINCOLN FUNERAL

William Lidmarsh, Wauconda Pioneer Called By Death Had Interesting Career

William Lidmarsh, one of Wauconda's pioneer citizens, passed away at his home on Maple avenue Thursday evening, September 23, after several weeks' illness.

He was born February 22, 1832, near Oxford, England, and was nearly 88 years of age at the time of his death. He came to the United States when twenty-five years of age. He came to Wauconda about a year later. He located there and ever since has been a familiar wherever music was concerned.

He answered the call of Uncle Sam in 1861 and led a band through the war to its close, and his band had the distinction of playing the funeral march at the burial of the martyred president, Abraham Lincoln.

After the war he returned to Wauconda, where he became the leading blacksmith of the village and conducted a shop for many years. About 20 years ago he sold out to Kerwan & Fuller and retired from active business.

CONFUSION ARISES OVER THE CHANGE IN TIME

Things Are Badly "Balled Up" When Waukegan Drops Daylight Saving

The obsequies for daylight saving occurred in Waukegan Sunday morning at 2 o'clock. The majority of people turned their clocks back before they went to bed Saturday night, so they awoke Sunday morning by standard time just as naturally as though the change had not taken place. They went to church and to the theatres by standard time and so far as can be learned there was no confusion.

But the confusion arises on the part of those who are obliged to catch trains. They must learn all over again what time the trains go. Then there are hundreds of Waukegan men employed at the naval station or North Chicago who must abide by daylight saving time until the end of the month. The worst condition develops in some families where part of the family are obliged to go by daylight saving time and the rest by standard.

VOLIVA IS SUED FOR $600,000; CHARGE LIBEL

WANT TO RECOVER PARK

Signboard Placed Near Independent Church Arouses the Ire of Overseer's Opponents

The City of Zion and Wilbur Glenn Voliva, its overlord, were made defendants Saturday in three damage suits aggregating $600,000. The suits charging slander and libel were brought by Rev. Thomas A. Nelson, pastor of the Independent church in Zion and by leading members of his congregation. The suits were filed in circuit court at Waukegan by Attorneys Jones, Addington, Ames and Seibold.

"We're calling Voliva's bluff," Rev. Nelson asserted. "We're going to force him to come into court and show his books which he has been guarding from public gaze so carefully. We're going to civilize him, if such a thing is possible. We demand a showdown and we are going to get justice if we have to carry our fight to the highest courts. This is a fight to a finish."

The title of the suits and the amount of damages asked in each are as follows:

Thomas A. Nelson, Charles Warren, W. E. Scholz, F. E. Will, H. A. Kerr, P. E. Johnson, Robert Murdock, and Fred Hancock vs. The City of Zion; trespass on the case for libel, $250,000 damages.

Charles Warren, W. D. Rockefeller, W. E. Scholz, F. E. Will, P. E. Johnson, Robert Murdock, and Fred Hancock vs. Wilbur Glenn Voliva; trespass on the case for libel, $250,000 damages.

Thomas A. Nelson vs. Wilbur Glenn Voliva, trespass on the case for libel and slander, $100,000 damages.

Want to Recover Park
The suit against the City of Zion, according to Reverend Nelson, is an effort to recover Zion's 300 acre park, which he says was illegally deeded to Voliva a few years ago for a consideration of $1. He says this action was taken by a council composed of Voliva's supporters. It is contended that the action was illegal in every respect.

According to Reverend Nelson the park is now monopolized by Voliva and his followers and there are large signs put up, he says, which warn others to keep out. Mr. Nelson says these parks belong to the city and maintains that the council had no right to give them away.

Signboard Causes Suit
The $250,000 suit brought against Voliva, according to Nelson, follows the erection of a mammoth signboard in front of the Independent church. Nelson says that this is an especially scurrilous signboard.

The other suit, that for $100,000, brought against Voliva by Nelson personally, deals with alleged slander which, Nelson says, Voliva has spread about him, both by means of signboards, in pamphlets and from the pulpit.

The Independents have subscribed $1,000 as a retainer for their attorneys and have agreed to "chip in" as additional sums of money are required to carry on the litigation.

When Overseer Voliva was asked about the suit he said he did not care to make a statement, that the whole proceeding was too silly and too laughable to justify an answer. He insisted that the men who had started the suits were merely seeking notoriety and felt that a court action was a good way to get it. However, he added, that if they went through with it he would be there at the finish.

Many of the candidates are in favor of a good road to every farm, and they are also opposed to any addition to taxation to pay for it.

While a lot of the veterans of the Civil War are able to march in the parades, yet many of the young crowd require a taxi to get up town.

Crowds are reported entering the colleges, but so far no one is reported as tramped upon in the rush to get into the class rooms.

While one hates to see the industries of the country slow down, it will be some relief not to have to spend a whole day chasing around to find some one who is willing to work for an hour.

It is not true that the young men have no discrimination, as they are very keen in picking out the best lookers among the girls.

The rival presidential candidates have been dining together, but it is not reported that this increased their appetite any.
