REPUBLICAN RALLY HERE NEXT WEEK

List of Speakers Includes Name of Hon. Fred S. Sterling and Hon. Carl Chindblom

A big Republican rally has been planned by the Deerfield township Republican committee to be held next Thursday evening, Oct. 28, at 7:30 o'clock in the Odd Fellows' hall 1/2 Laurel avenue (formerly the old Baptist church). Everyone is invited and all who are interested in the success of the Republican party at the polls on Nov. 2, are urged to attend. Hon. Fred S. Sterling, candidate for lieutenant-governor, and Hon. Carl Chindblom, candidate for reelection to Congress, will be the principal speakers of the evening, and there will be short talks by Mrs. Fannie Gradle, Mrs. F. D. Everett, A. W. Pierce, W. F. Weiss and A. V. Smith. Other speakers will be announced later.

Music will be furnished by a quartet. Come and bring your friends!

PETERS NEW PARTNER IN CENTRAL TIRE CO

Increase of Business Warrant Firm's Enlarging; Change Made This Week

John Peters, who, since his return from service a year ago, has been employed by A. E. Smith in the Central Tire company's shop in Sheridan road, has been taken into partnership by Mr. Smith. The recent increase in the amount of business done by the concern has warranted the expansion.

Mr. Peters was first employed by his present partner eight years ago when Mr. Smith was managing the newspaper agency in Highland Park.
