NEW PAVEMENT IS OPENED TO TRAFFIC

FINE STRETCH OF ROAD

North Shore Electric Railway to Enlarge Right-of-Way North of Lake Forest

A mile of new brick pavement, laid on a concrete base has been completed on the new roadway between Lake Forest and Lake Bluff. The stretch between Noble avenue and Lake Bluff is open to traffic. That part of the road south of Noble avenue will be opened in the near future. This pavement was built by the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee electric railroad to replace the old road which they will take to widen their right-of-way. It is expected that the electric line will construct another track along that part of their road, as it is the only stretch of single track on their line. The new road has been constructed a few yards east of the old. Within the near future the pavement will be extended south to College road, according to plans being considered.

For some time the electric railroad has been desirous of having its private right-of-way through Lake Bluff and Lake Forest, but found that the only way this could be accomplished was to take over the road on which the tracks are laid at the present time, and to purchase the adjoining land as a roadway to take its place. This was done and the work of paving it accomplished.

The completion of the pavement adds one of the finest stretches of roadway between Chicago and Milwaukee.

WOMAN'S CLUB BAZAAR A DECIDED SUCCESS

so much, as from the impossibility of tearing themselves from the heaped-up plates of edibles before them.

All of the artists work was good and the crowd, full of hilarious spirits (that is simply a figure of speech, Mabel—only Sparkling Spring Water was served at the meal—) responded nobly to their efforts to please.

Olga Menn sang a group of songs so well that she was encored repeatedly, while Lotta Shawvan captured the delighted interest of the spectators with her dancing and songs. One number sung with Anson Meador made the hit of the evening—and Mr. Meador's solo dance which followed, proved he can still shake a wicked foot when he so wills.

As to the orchestra, lead by Mr. John Tuttle, with Mrs. George Lytton at the piano, it was all that an orchestra should be—and praise can go no farther. Its seductive strains made many a foot here-to-fore sedately pointed church-ward, tap easily beneath the table, and the jazz stuff shimmied its way through the delighted senses of the listeners.

By the time the coffee and cigars had arrived, the entertainers had left the stage and Mr. Tuttle, acting the part of auctioneer, sold a few pretty trifles left over from the bazaar. He always started each sale by requesting Mayor Hastings to buy the article for five dollars. After trying to work off telephone screens, candle shades and boudoir lamps on the city's chief executive, the mayor finally succumbed to the allurements of a toy sail-boat, and Mr. Tuttle wiped his perspiring brow and breathed a mighty sigh of relief.

At last the candles dripped low in their sockets, smoke wreaths filled the room, Mr. Tuttle's voice gave out and the diners sighed with repletion and slowly made their way to the door. In the outer hall one man—an habitual banqueter—voiced the collective note of approval when he said: "That's the first public dinner I ever attended where every hot dish on the menu was really hot when it reached the table. I'll say it was a great meal."

The following firms donations to the dinner helped make it the successful affair it proved to be: Libby, McNeil & Libby; Heinz 57 varieties; Hiker & Bletsch; Armour & Co.; Swift & Co.; Highland Park Grocers; Calumet Baking Powder Co.; Frank Green's famous ice cream and the Chase & Sanborn Coffee company, and Bowman Dairy Co. Sparkling Spring Mineral Water was also donated.

One phase of the sale was the display of machines and devices for labor-saving in the home. Business houses from Chicago as well as the local merchants displayed their wares which ranged in variety from ice-cream freezers and doughnut machines to heating plants, food products and beautiful flowers.

the value of the work done by Mrs. Frank Cain and her committee in conceiving, organizing and carrying out a project so large in scope as this sale proved to be. It could be only the work of a woman of Mrs. Cain's broad vision and executive ability. Her helpful co-operation with all the committees has been greatly appreciated, and was, in fact, sincerely reflected in each one who shared in the work of accomplishment.

The entire debt on the Woman's club property has now been cleared and a good balance remains in the bank.
