PIONEER DIES AT HOME IN GURNEE

LIVED IN COUNTY 78 YEARS

B. F. Shepard, Descendant of Pilgrim Stock, and a Civil War Veteran, Succumbs Saturday

Benjamin F. Shepard, 89 years old, veteran of the Civil war, resident of Lake county since 1842, farmer, former collector and commissioner from Warren township, is dead at his home at Gurnee, death occurring Saturday evening. Funeral services were held at Gurnee cemetery chapel Tuesday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock with interment in Warren cemetery. Members of the Waukegan post No. 374, G. A. R. were in charge.

Mr. Shepard was one of the oldest residents in Lake county. He was born in Northampton, Mass., December, 1831, coming here 78 years ago. He comes from Pilgrim stock; and his grandfather, Israel Bailey, served in the war of 1812, being "among those present" in the Perry victory. His parents, George and Elmira (Bailey) Shepard, came to Lake county when he was 10 years old, settling in Warren township.

In 1858 he was married to Melvina J. Lamb, whose parents, Joseph and Hannah Lamb, who settled in this county in 1839, and for whom Lamb's Corners was named.

After declaration of the Civil war he abandoned his plow and took up the rifle, enlisting in Company G, 96th Illinois Infantry, serving for three years in the Army of the Cumberland and Tennessee, participating in the important battles of Chickamauga, Chattanooga, Kennesaw Mountain, Resaca and those of the siege of Atlanta. At the first named he received a gunshot wound which confined him to a hospital for eight months.

He afterward participated in the battle of Nashville against Gen. Hood. At the close of the war he was honorably discharged at Nashville, and returned to his farming and stock raising duties. During his absence his wife had died, in 1864, and he returned to a saddened household. A son, Clarence, was born to the first union, who survives, residing at Gurnee. Later Mr. Shepard twice remarried.

Mr. Shepard was a staunch republican and held town offices of collector and commissioner and member of the school board. He was a member of Waukegan Post, Grand Army of the Republic, and a worthy pioneer.

AS TO POOR MOTHERS IN OUR COMMUNITY

When Judge Henry Neil, father of mothers' pensions, pushed his first pension bill through the Illinois legislature in 1911, no state or nation in the world was paying poor mothers a cent for the highly important government work they were doing of bringing up their children properly, so that in a few years they would be good citizens.

This year — 1920 Cook-co, Illinois, will pay half a million dollars in pensions, on order of court, to mothers of little ones whose fathers are dead, incapacitated, or missing.

The other day, the police of Chicago, which is in Cook-co, found two little boys wandering the streets at midnight, probably learning city deviltry. Taking them home about 2 a. m., the widowed mother was found. She had returned at midnight from her work of scrubbing in a big office building and at 2 a. m. was starting her own washing for her family of five children. The court — Judge Arnold — gave her a pension at once; he decided that the responsibility and public importance of rearing a family of five was enough for one woman to undertake without having to earn a living for them also.

Our rural towns and communities probably have a few such extreme cases as the foregoing. Yet, we do have occasional poor widows with small children and poor mothers with bad husbands. Are we paying enough attention to the few we have? Are we seeing to it that they are able to bring their children up properly, including good nourishment and sufficient education to make them physically strong and mentally strong American citizens?

What Mrs. Brenninger, of New York, Says About Rat Poison

"Tried preparations that kill rats, but RAT-SNAP is the only one that prevents disagreeable odors after killing. Also like RAT-SNAP because it comes in handy cakes, no mixing with other food. You don't have to dirty your hands, it's the best for household use." Try RAT-SNAP. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by
