ELM PLACE SCHOOL

Editor-in-Chief, Henry Boyd

Assistant Editors, 7 A Class

The Christmas play is to be given this year as usual. The eighth grade and a few of the seventh grade pupils the afternoon and evening of Friday, are to take part. It will be given in December 17, 1920. Everyone is welcome.

The 7A pupils are decorating the blackboards in their room with Santa Clauses, Wise Men following the star, Waits singing carols, Tiny Tim, and others.

The 7A Literature class gave a Christmas gift to the Elm Place library. The money was used for the following books: Apauk, Caller of the Buffalo, The Dreadful Hole-Cave, and The Mutineers. Our library is growing.

On Thursday afternoon, Dec. 9, the 8B's held a stamp sale. Stamps were contributed by pupils in various grades. The money will be given to the starving children of the Far East. This is the place to enlarge your collection.

Don't forget to watch for the basketball game. The Elm Place team will play the Boy Scout Lightweight team soon at the High School gymnasium.

The Elm Place players are: Joe Bernardi, Edward Bolan, Delver Dever, Wesley Conrad, Henry Hess, Robert Stupple and Robert Smith are substitutes.

The 8B class received two letters the past week from Paul Freeman and Robert Wilson. Paul says "I am now in Washington, D. C. I came here last Saturday. We had a very hard time motoring through snow a foot and a half deep. It took us six days instead of four. . . . From here I am going to Baltimore and maybe to Pittsburgh where I will visit the steel works." Paul's address is Camp Dix, N. J.

Robert writes: "I am getting along fine in my studies. I am taking Arithmetic, English, French and Latin. . . . I have met many fine boys but they are not equal to those in Highland Park." Robert's address is 924 West End Ave., New York City, Apt. T 1. We are always glad to hear from our former classmates.

The 6A's gave the second performance of the Miles Standish play this week. The 3A's, 4B's, 4A's and 6B's were listeners. Much credit is due the 6A's for their fine acting.

An advance meeting of the Parent-Teacher association will be held on Thursday afternoon.

On Wednesday the 3A's made butter. Each pupil brought wafers and they had a party. The 3A's are having a Better English drive. The 8B's in arithmetic are studying investments. They think the best investment they can make is giving to the needy children in Europe. Each pupil has a self-denial Christmas box. They are doing the same thing in 6B.

Literature Teacher: "What is a barbecue?"

8th grade pupil: "A barbecue is something a Chinaman swears on his head."

Teacher: "What is a gullaby?"

Small child: "It is an Eskimo dance."

8B pupil (reading): "Mrs. Corney thought to solace herself with a cup of tea—"interpreted it thus—"Mrs. Corney thought to so lace herself with a cup of tea."
