UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH

J. H. Keagle, Pastor

The congregation was agreeably surprised on Sunday night by a visit from Bishop William H. Fouke, of Harrisburg, Pa., who came to stay over night with the pastor and his family. Bishop Fouke delivered a splendid sermon and the people were greatly delighted.

The Primary department of the Sunday school gave its Christmas program last Saturday afternoon in the auditorium of the church. There were about 60 members of the department with their mothers, many babies, members of the Cradle Roll, with their mothers, who enjoyed the program given by the little ones. At the close of the program there was a reception to the children and their mothers by the superintendent and teachers in the basement, where a table beautifully decorated and in the form of a cross was prepared for the children. Cake and ice cream and candies were distributed. It was a beautiful scene and was greatly enjoyed by all present.

The program given by the adult and junior departments will be presented on Thursday evening, beginning at 8 o'clock. A cantata, the "Messiah," will be given. An offering will be received for Western Home missions. The primary department brought the sum of $25 for their share of this offering. If the main portion of the school does as well there will be a splendid sum for this worthy cause.

There will be a "Candle Light Service" on Sunday evening in this church, beginning at 7 o'clock sharp. There will be three short addresses interspersed with appropriate music. These services have been very much appreciated in the past and this one is fully up to the old time quality and effectiveness. The public is invited to these services.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Bible school will meet at 9:30 next Sunday morning.

Morning worship at 11 o'clock. Strangers are cordially welcome at this service.

There will be a Christmas vesper service at 4:30 in the afternoon. The public is cordially invited to attend.

The Young People's society will meet for supper at 6:30. Following the supper there will be a special program of music and the singing of the Christmas carols.

There will be no meeting of the Missionary union during holiday week. The Watanapa group of Camp Fire girls will have a Christmas party on Tuesday afternoon, Dec. 28, from 2:30 to 5:00 in the church parlors. Each girl will invite one other girl to be her guest.

The Christmas party for the Cradle Roll and Beginners' departments will be held on Wednesday afternoon, December 29, at 2 o'clock, in the church parlors.

The Primary department will have its annual party on Thursday, afternoon, Dec. 30.

Prayer meeting on Wednesday evening as usual.

The free will offering last Sunday for the starving children of Europe amounted to $72.11. Those who still desire to contribute may do so by sending their gifts to Mr. Chas. Harbaugh, treasurer of benevolences.
