M. E. CHURCH

The usual Christmas exercises were held at the church Christmas eve. The program was of unusual merit and interest. The children were happy in their generous gift to the starving children of Europe. Though they had foregone their treat of good things in order to make this offering, they were surprised and delighted with the unexpected treat they received as a personal gift of one of our good women.

The three offerings to the children of Europe, the leper colony and the Lake Bluff orphanage were all substantial and accompanied by the prayers of the people will accomplish the end intended.

New Year's Service—
On New Year's eve a watch-night service will be held. This service is always more appropriate and helpful to all who attend. This year it will be of more than ordinary interest in the consciousness of the universal suffering and distress and the staggering task and conditions that await a Christian answer. We share in this universal call. Then there are the more immediate and pressing needs of our community that come crowding about our thresholds. All these can be met only in the name of Him whose birth Christendom has just celebrated. This service will be of great value to us. There will be a program of singing, speaking, and a social hour. The service will close with a period of prayer and deconsecration for the tasks ahead.

Choir Rehearsal—
The choir will meet Friday evening promptly at 7:30. Be on time.

Wednesday Evening Service—
7:30 Wednesday evening the mid-week Bible-reading and prayer service will be held.

Sunday Services—
The S. S. meets at 9:30. The morning hour of worship follows at 10:45. At 6:30 the Epworth League and at 7:30 the evangelistic service.

UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH

J. H. Keagle, Pastor
The Christmas season was a very gracious time with this congregation. The program was held on Thursday evening. A large crowd was present and the school and choir rendered a beautiful cantata and distributed presents to the scholars. The different classes remembered their teachers with appropriate gifts. An offering of nearly $130.00 was handed in for Home Missions and about $75.00 for the starving children of Europe. This latter offering will be increased to over $100.00 by next Sunday.

There was an enjoyable "Candle-light service" on Sunday evening under the direction of Miss Evelyn Snyder. Three short addresses on the topic, "The Saviour the Prince of Peace", interspersed with some beautiful Christmas music consisting of quartettes, trios, and choruses. The auditorium was lighted by numerous candles which gave a very pleasing effect. The service was pleasing and profitable.

There will be a "Watch-night service" in this church on Friday night beginning at 8:30 o'clock. There will be a song and testimony meeting for an hour; then an hour of social intercourse; at 10:30 a sermon by the pastor concluding with an altar service as the old year passes. An invitation is extended to Christian people to come and enjoy these services.

The pastor will preach Sunday morning and evening. The Sunday school will meet at 9:30 prompt. The newly elected officers will take charge. There should be a large attendance to encourage the new officers.

The teacher training class will meet next Monday night at 8:00 sharp and the class in Bible study will follow at 8:30. This church takes up the work of the new year with enthusiasm and devotion. The great longing is for a revival in which many souls shall be won for the Lord.

RAVINIA CIVIC CLUB

The Woman's Civic club of Ravinia will hold a special meeting January 11, at 8 o'clock. There will be a stereopticon lecture by Miss Marian Moseley on Nutrition Work for Delicate Children, with the Dr. Grenfell mission in Labrador.

The regular monthly meeting will be held January 12th at 2:30 o'clock. Miss Parmenter of Lake Forest will talk on The Juvenile Court Work in Lake County.

OAK TERRACE SCHOOL

The Oak Terrace school will give a sleigh ride party Friday afternoon. The party will leave the school house at three o'clock. All are cordially invited to attend.

WAITING FOR YOU A Handsome Calendar for 1921

One of the calls of the New Year is an attractive calendar for the office, the store, the home. As in the past, we have anticipated the wants of our friends and patrons and they are invited to call at the bank where a handsome calendar for 1921 is waiting for them. An early visit is recommended because the supply is limited.

And lest you forget, have you joined our Christmas Clubs? If not, now is the accepted time. Why not attend to it when you call for your calendar?

WILSON WRITES TO MRS. HORATIO SEYMOUR

The following is a copy of a clipping from the New York World of December 22nd containing a copy of a letter of condolence from President Wilson to Mrs. H. W. Seymour.

"President Wilson was one of the admirers of the late Horatio W. Seymour, formerly of the editorial staff of The World, and following news of his death last week sent the following telegram of condolence and appreciation, which Mrs. Seymour has just made public.

Mrs. Horatio W. Seymour, No. 530 West End Avenue.
May I not express to you my very deep sympathy in the loss of your admirable husband, who has done so much conscientious and excellent work for the promotion of the right in politics and international relationship?

WOODROW WILSON.
Mrs. Seymour is Mrs. Rex Jones' mother.

Many people who find fault with the housing conditions are reminded that there are plenty of vacant dwellings out next to the cornfields.
