BOOST!

Boost Highland Park, boost your friend,
Boost the lodge that you attend,
Boost the street on which you're dwelling
Boost the goods that you are selling,
Boost the people round about you,
They can get along without you,
But success will quicker find them
If they know that you're behind them.
Boost for every forward movement,
Boost for every new improvement,
Boost the man for whom you labor,
Boost the stranger and the neighbor.
Cease to be a chronic knocker,
Cease to be a progress blocker,
If you'd make Highland Park better,
Boost it to the final letter.

PRESIDENT OF NORTH CHICAGO FOUNDRY DIES

DEATH CAME SUDDENLY

John Sherwin Succumbed to Brain Hemorrhage, Sunday. Funeral Held This Morning

Mr. John Sherwin, president of the Chicago Hardware Co., and the Lake County State Bank, died suddenly at his home on Sheridan road, Sunday morning at one thirty o'clock as the result of hemorrhage of the brain. Mr. Sherwin was one of the best known manufacturers along the North Shore. Although he had only made his home in this city since 1917, he was well known here because of his prominence along the North Shore and in North Chicago where he formerly resided and served three terms as mayor. Mr. Sherwin had made his usual trip to the Foundry Company on Saturday and returned home about four o'clock in the best of health. He went out into his yard and was walking around when he became suddenly ill and called to his youngest son, who helped him into the house. Mr. Sherwin (Continued on Page 11)

CHILD FALLS IN ICE FLOES; IS RESCUED

Kenneth Niebuhr Escapes Drowning at Beach, Thursday. Rescued by Fred Botker

Last Thursday morning, the children of the kindergarten with their teachers took a walk to the beach. Little Kenneth Niebuhr the small son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Niebuhr stepped onto the ice floes which gave way causing him to fall into the water. Had it not been for Assistant Fred Botker at the Highland Park Pumping station, who leaped into the water and rescued the child, he might have drowned. People who venture onto the beach at this season of the year should be very careful not to walk on the ice floes as it is very dangerous.

SAILOR-BURGLAR IS ARRESTED BY POLICE

HEARING THIS AFTERNOON

Vincent De Pascal, Recruit at Naval Station, Fails to Explain Articles Found in His Possession

Vincent De Pascal, a sailor from the Great Lakes naval training station, who is charged with burglary of Highland Park homes, will come up for preliminary hearing before Justice A. E. Smith this afternoon. The hearing was postponed from yesterday afternoon. De Pascal was noticed by a maid at the E. M. Snow home in Prospect ave. He was prowling about a house near by. She reported the man to the police. Officer John Sullivan took the message and notified Chief of Police Edward Maroney. The two officers approached the sailor from opposite directions, and seized him by surprise. In his possession they found a silver card tray, three books, which he claimed he purchased in Chicago, a purse belonging to Mrs. John M. Tuttle, which contained $8.60, two commutation railway tickets to Chicago, and numerous other articles, including a set of false teeth. He made no explanation concerning the various articles found in his possession, and he was lodged in the city jail. Justice A. E. Smith has placed his bonds at $2,500. Despite the fact that the man had made no confession, the police believe there is no doubt that the man entered the J. M. Tuttle home, and probably he looted several others. At first it was believed that this arrest might lead to an explanation of several robberies that occurred in Highland Park two weeks ago. De Pascal, however, could not have had any connection with those robberies, because he was in detention at the naval station at that time, having but recently been transferred from New York, where he enlisted three weeks ago.

Musical Arranged by Highland Park Women's Club Will be One of the Season's Biggest Affairs

"That a prophet may not be without honor save in her own country" there follow a few of the many favorable criticisms from different parts of the country where Helen Abbott Byfield has charmed with her personality and talent:

"Seldom has it been the privilege of music lovers to hear a singer more richly endowed."—Rockford (Ill.) Register-Gazette.

"Won a place in the hearts of her hearers with every number of her richly varied program."—Minneapolis Journal.

"A soprano with rare voice and charming pure tones and exquisite Grace."—Karlton Hackett, Chicago Evening Post.

The above is enough to convince anyone who has not heard Mrs. Byfield that the opportunity offered to hear her in "our own home town" in an auditorium large enough to adequately display her ability is indeed rare.

It hardly seems, however, that there can be any in Highland Park who have not heard her for she has been most generous and gracious with her wonderful voice since she came here to live. Her first appearance was with the Highland Park Woman's club two years ago. The demand for a re-appearance was insistent from the entire membership, and (Continued on Page 11)
