It Needs to be THOROUGHLY OVERHAULED

There comes a time in the life of every motor car when it is ready for either one of two things: The second-hand market — or a thorough overhauling.

Often the latter will make it almost as good as new.

Automobiles are built to give satisfactory service for several years. If you give yours proper care you can make it deliver the service the maker planned.

We can help you. We are prepared to do everything necessary to keep it in the best of shape — to do it well — to do it at a most moderate cost.

Nice line of sensible accessories, too. And vulcanizing — in fact, a very complete motor service. Try it and see.
