M. E. CHURCH

It is great to have been born. It is greater to be alive. It is still greater to have experienced a full development of the latent powers of mind, soul and body in harmony with the laws of the Creator and so keep His laws and serve our fellow-men in such a day as this. There is no occupation more engaging and fascinating; that calls for such immediate and glad sacrifice; that excludes every other interest and consideration as the occupation of observing the growth of the object of our love.

An institution has its birth and passes through the same stages of growth as the individual. The church is such an institution. Grace M. E. church at North ave. and Lauretta pl., has had a healthy growth the past two years. She is still in the process of growing. Her field of service is enlarging, calling for an enlargement program and a greater demand for trained workers. Last Monday evening at 7:45 the meeting of the official family at the church gave evidence of new vision with strength and courage to realize that vision. You know St. Paul said: "I have learned in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content. Should Paul say that today, he would put it this way: "I have learned in whatsoever situation I find myself, to meet that situation." It was in this spirit that sixteen members of our church guardians sat down together Monday evening (exclusive of the chairman.)

Matters of vital importance relative to the future service this church is to render the community were introduced and met in the spirit of Paul. We desire to thank all who have cooperated with us in this work and we invite a continuation of such cooperation. We shall ever be glad to welcome you to our services and to render any service within our power.

Wednesday, 7:30: Prayer and Bible Study. Friday, 7:30, choir rehearsal. Sunday, 9:30 and 10:45. Sunday school and morning worship. 6:30 p. m., Epworth League. 7:30, Sunday evening evangelistic service.

On Monday evening at 7:30 the Sunday school board will have an important meeting. All teachers and officers are expected to attend.

The women like to emphasize again that the Center is open to every man, woman and child of the community and to all non partisan, non sectarian organizations devoted to recreation, civic art, musical, educational and other activities looking to the common good. During the past year fourteen different organizations and civic groups have made use of the Center and it is hoped that before another year has passed the Center may be able to serve twice that number.

At the annual meeting of all the members of Community Service which was held Jan. 17 the following were elected to serve for two years on the Community Service board to take the place of the retiring members:

Mrs. J. McGregor Adams
Mrs. George Pick

Work among the boys under Mr. Rossman's leadership is well under way. Classes are being held every afternoon except Sunday at 3:30 p. m. in the new Community gymnasium on Central avenue. These classes at present consist mostly of social games for boys. As soon as protectors for the windows are put in the hall will be used for playing indoor baseball, basketball, volley ball and indoor quots. League and tournaments of these various athletics are to be worked out. The boys are to organize into a Recreation club with different units representing the various sports.

Price reductions have not yet led to any big drop in building, except that some of these poorly constructed modern houses have fallen down.
