ONLY $63,000 FOR GREAT LAKES—REPORT

According to reports at Great Lakes the government did not come through with the $100,000 asked for the deficiency at Great Lakes up to the end of June as was expected.

Instead, they have apportioned $63,000 to the station for that period. This is so small that it is felt that it will mean that many more civilians will have to be laid off because the $100,000 was figured to be just enough to tide it over.

The report caused much disappointment at the station and was considered authentic because it was circulated among official circles.

Anxious inquirer asks what "folk songs" are. Well, most distinctive American folk song just now is "How dry I am."

The people haven't been hollering so loud for military glory, since they found out that 93 cents out of every dollar of taxes go for war purposes. While it may be all right for the Senate to order the new president what to do, they should permit him to draw the presidential salary and live in the White House.
