REAL ESTATE BOARD TALK ON CLOSING PLAN

ASK PUBLIC CO-OPERATION

Many in Favor of Sunday Closing Along North Shore. Urge All Dealers to Join

The following is an article on Sunday closing sent but by the Real Estate board:

The North Shore Real Estate board, comprising practically all of the real estate firms operating between Wilmette and Highland Park, both inclusive, desire to know whether the property owners and residents in the above territory are in favor of showing the property they own or occupy seven days a week or whether they wish to have one day a week (Sunday) to spend undisturbed with their families.

The Real Estate board members do not wish to operate on Sundays; they think they are entitled to one day of rest each week. Many would like to attend church. They signed an agreement last fall not to operate on Sundays from November 1, 1920, to Feb. 1, 1921, and have kept their agreement. A very few dealers who did not join the Board, continued to operate on Sunday. Now comes the question:

Shall we be able to continue observing one day of rest or shall we go back to the antiquated way of operating and asking house-holders to show property on Sunday?

The answer rests with the public. It is impossible to get an expression within the time limit from each individual resident of the villages and we are appealing to the various organizations of representative citizens for an expression as to whether their members will back up the members of the Real Estate board by refusing to show or allow to be shown prospective buyers or renters their property on Sunday.

Evanston and Wilmette dealers have agreements not to operate on Sunday the year around and dealers of the North Shore Real Estate board wish to enter into year-round agreements of the same nature. They know they can sell just as much property in six as in seven days a week; that once the buyers are given to understand the situation, the sale or rental of property will not be jeopardized or retarded; that it will be to the best interests of the villages not to have the quietude and peace disturbed by the hawking about real estate for the curiosity of the large number of "Sunday sign-seekers" for experience has proved that buyers or renters who are in earnest will take the time to look at property during the six days ordinarily given over to the transaction of business.

But, unfortunately, there are three or four dealers in the territory north of Evanston, not members of the Real Estate board, who seem to think that in order to make a living they must operate and ask their employees to operate every day in the week. Some of the Board members think that to refrain from operating on Sunday while others keep open will work a hardship to those who close. The time of agreement to remain closed has been extended to February 15th. Is there more reason why owners and agents of real estate should continue to be imposed upon, merely because it has been the custom in the past than there is for the butcher, baker and candle-stick maker to operate seven days a week for the benefit of possible customers?

HOOVER'S MOVIE DAY

Movies to Give State Benefit for Starving Europeans
January 26.

January 26 will be Motion Picture Day for the Hoover fund.

In every theater in Illinois, in addition to the regular bill, will be shown pictures of the underfed, anaemic children of central and eastern Europe being fed a meal a day at the Hoover kitchens. An entertaining tabloid feature, 150 feet in length, called "The Invisible Guest," will also be thrown on the screens of Illinois theaters to remind the people of their obligation to the unfortunate little victims of a war in which they had no hand. Four-minute speakers will supplement the pictures with their appeals to the American generosity, just as they did during the war.

"What industry owes more to the people—and to the children?" asks William A. Brady, president of the National Association of Motion Picture Industries, in a statement to the movie men of America. "It's the genuine heart-ting between motion pictures and the people that has resulted in the tremendous development of our business. We're the people's dearest friend—it's their right to come to us for help."

The following statement, signed by Balaban & Katz, Fitzpatrick McElroy, W. A. Watts of Bloomington, D. Robinson of Peoria and W. D. Burford of Peoria, has been issued to the movie men of Illinois:

"We, the undersigned special committee of the Motion Picture division of the European Relief Council, in the state of Illinois, earnestly advocate that every motion picture theater in the state of Illinois render every courtesy and assistance possible to the representative of the organization allied in the humane, timely, and urgent charity to the starving children of Europe on January 26, and that cheerful permission be granted all qualified representatives the use of the motion-picture theaters of the state of Illinois for the purpose of a four-minute speech for the above cause; and to allow them to accept offerings in the name of the suffering childhood of devastated Europe.

Making Houses Into Homes

One hundred and fifty thousand families get out of bed these sharp mornings and bless the Holland heating system for the comfortable, even warmth that permeates every room in the house. They have proved to their own satisfaction — both of purse and of comfort — that it isn't what you pay for your coal, but what you save on your coal that counts most in this important item of household expense.

They have discovered that cozy homes are an economic certainty — not an exception — in Holland-heated houses.

"The Heart of the Home"

In addition to consistent monthly savings of fuel and the certainty of daily comfort, these owners find that the Holland system requires a minimum of daily attention as compared to other heating systems of equal or greater cost.

For instance, its cone center rocking grate shakes so easily that even a ten-year-old child is capable of handling it.
