The office seekers take all the time of the president and cabinet through the day, but at night they can rest up by thinking a little about the tariff, taxes, industrial situation, and the league of nations.

Not many people die of enlargement of the heart, but a great number are in great danger from enlargement of the head.

What this world needs is fearless, unselfish, non-sectarian, non-political leadership.

Formerly the men took off their coats so they could work better, now they do it to show off their silk shirts.

was ill in Baltimore and asked for a continuance. Attorney Pope for the defense insisted upon an immediate trial which was ordered by Judge Edwards.

Doyle's testimony was undisputed through the absence of Morris and his claim for $10 a month for 75 months, the time Morris kept the mule which Doyle said belonged to him, was allowed.

During the various trials of the case the litigants have employed many high priced experts and veterinarians to testify for them. Which ever side loses the case finally will have to pay thousands of dollars in court costs.

ESCAPED SERVICE, CAN'T BE CITIZENS

SIGNED AWAY THEIR RIGHT

Four Lake County Men are Refused Final Naturalization Papers Because They Wouldn't Fight

Uncle Sam wants no fair weather citizens — for that reason citizenship was denied in circuit court at Waukegan today to three aliens who claimed exemption from military service during the recent war because they were not citizens of the United States. Citizenship was denied to a fourth, a resident of Zion, because he has conscientious scruples against bearing arms.

Following is a list of the men whose petitions were dismissed today because they had claimed exemption on the ground they were aliens and who were placed in Class F during the war.

Abe Goodman, 1435 Wadsworth av., Waukegan. He was born in Russia July 15, 1885, and took out his first citizenship papers in Waukegan December 1, 1914.

Michele Cimarsusti, 700 Deerfield avenue, Highland Park. He was born in Italy, Feb. 2, 1892. When war broke out he had not taken out his first papers.

Adam Junaitis, 1111 Victoria street, North Chicago. He took out his first papers, June 27, 1914.

The other man who was denied citizenship today was:

Raso Michael Ernst, 2719 Elgin av., Zion City. Ernst served in the Students Army Training Corps at Chicago from October 4, 1918, to December 17, 1918. He said he entered this branch of the service because his conscientious scruples would not permit him to shoulder a gun. He was born in 1898.

A. Jordan, naturalization examiner, stated that in the case of the first three men the only chance there is for them to become citizens is to wait until five years after date they claimed exemption and then take out their first papers, starting all over. In the case of Ernst he is permanently barred from becoming a citizen so long as he holds his present attitude.

There are a number of Lake County men who claimed exemption during the war on the ground that they were aliens. Citizenship is denied to all of them as they will find when they apply for their final papers.

BE LOYAL

If you work for a man, in heaven's name work for him. If he pays wages that supply you your bread and butter, work for him, speak well of him, think well of him, stand by him, and stand by the institution he represents. I think if I worked for a man I would work for him. I would not work for him a part of his time, but all of his time. I would give an undivided service or none. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage, why resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content. But, I pray you, so long as you are a part of an institution, do not condemn it. Not that you will injure the institution — not that — but when you disparage the concern of which you are a part, you disparage yourself.

Albert Hubbard.

MULE CASE TO BE TRIED ONCE MORE

IN LITIGATION TEN YEARS

Thousands of Dollars Have Been Spent in Legal Battle Over $200 Animal Long Since Dead

Lake County's celebrated mule case which has dragged along for ten years at a cost to the litigants of over $5,000.00, was believed to be dead in June last year when Joseph R. Morris, former resident of Deerfield, but now of Baltimore, Md., was ordered to pay J. F. Doyle, the defendant, the sum of $750 for the use of the mule for 75 months at $10 a month. The appellate court however, entered an order on March 17 in which they reverse the judgment and remanded the case back to the circuit court here for trial. The original value of the mule was $200.

The case started ten years ago when Morris placed a mule in Doyle's pasture at Deerfield. The two men were neighbors. He sent for the mule the following spring but claimed that Doyle sent back a much inferior animal. He sent this mule back and armed with a writ of replevin went to Doyle's pasture and took a mule which he said was his own. He afterward testified in court that he knew it was his mule for the animal recognized him.

Morris won the replevin suit in justice court. Doyle appealed. The case was tried in circuit court before Judge C. H. Donnelly. The jury returned a verdict in favor of Morris. Judge Donnelly set the verdict aside.

The case was tried again but this time the jury disagreed because they could not fix the age of the mule.

Apparently tired of this the mule laid down and died.

Then Morris went overseas to do Red Cross work. The case was continued from time to time while he was gone.

After he returned the case was called up again. Attorney A. B. Beubala who represented Morris, produced affidavits showing his client
