

If you intend planting a few fruit trees or berry bushes this spring, don't plant varieties which don't do well here. The following list is made of such sorts as have in our 26 years experience in H. P. proved better suited for this neighborhood and soil than others and while it has cost a good deal of money, time and labor to find it out we give you the benefit of this list to save you disappointment.

Snowapple, Early Harvest and Northern Spy are among the best of Apples, and do well here; Hyslop makes the best bearer among Crabapples, and is fine for jelly.

Among the Pears, Keiffer is the best of all, while the Fruit is not as good as some other sorts, it is excellent for canning, and the tree is a rapid grower with beautiful glossy foliage and in flower each spring. Clapp's Favorite is the best eating Pear and also does well here.

Among Cherries Early Richmond is the only one which does well in our climate. Early Champion makes a desirable Peach. Among the Plums, Lombardii is the best.

Perfection or Red Dutch are the most suitable Currants and bear every year; and Dawning is a reliable Gooseberry. Cuthbert is the best among Raspberries and Black Jack is the best Blackberry.

Among Grapes, Concord, Niagara and Delaware do fine here.

ELM PLACE SCHOOL
Editor-in-chief, Margaret Steele
Assistant Editors, Eight B Class
Norman McClintock, will give a lecture on "American Bird Life" tonight (Thursday) in the auditorium. There will be two children's matinees, one at 1:15 p. m. and the other at 2:30 p. m. There will also be an evening lecture given at eight o'clock.
Monday morning in Assembly, Mr. Smith showed another set of slides of spring flowers.
The children in the Kindergarten are making bird books. When they see a bird they put its picture in their books.
The Southerland twins are now members of the kindergarten class.
Robinson Crusoe will not be hungry because the 2A children have planted barley for him. It is now about three inches high. They have also planted lettuce and barley in the school garden.
There appeared in the Ladies Home Journal a short time ago pictures of characters in the story of Robinson Crusoe. The pupils in the 2A have made a poster out of them. It shows Friday, the savages, Robinson Crusoe and his home.
They have planted grass seeds in pine cones and are watching them grow. They are watching sweet potatoes sprout in water. Making bird pictures also is included in their routine.

OBITUARY

The sudden death of Colonel Robert Cutts Williams, U. S. Army, which occurred at Houston, Texas, on March 15, was a great shock to his friends, both in and out of service. He was born in Washington in 1867, of an old and distinguished family, being the oldest son of General Robert Williams, a former adjutant general, and Mrs. Adele Cutts, who was by her first marriage the wife of Stephen A. Douglas. He was a member by inheritance of the Military Order of the Loyal Legion and a veteran of two wars — the Spanish-American, when he served with his regiment, the 1st U. S. Cavalry, and the Rough Riders at El Paso and El Caney, and of the World War, when conspicuous performance of duty during the Meuse-Argonne operations. Most of his 30 years of service was spent in the Philippines and on the border with the 4th, the 7th, the 13th the 14th and the 16th regiments of United States cavalry, where his sturdy endurance, his ready wit, and the open hospitality of his home endeared him to his fellow officers. He was also inspector-instructor for the New Jersey and Pennsylvania National Guards and during the late war commanded the 331st infantry with which regiment he sailed for France in 1918. At the time of his death he was inspector-instructor of the Texas National Guard and was under orders to proceed to Columbus, Ohio. The Houston Chronicle pays Colonel Williams the following tribute: "He was always approachable and was democratic in his views. He was untiring in behalf of the National Guard of Texas, and when I say we will miss him I speak for every officer and man of the Texas National Guard." His funeral took place at Arlington, Saturday, March 19, with full military honors. He leaves a widow, Mrs. R. C. Williams, who will make her home at Highland Park, Ill., with her father; a son, Robert Yoe Williams, of Amherst college, Massachusetts; a daughter, Miss Mary Wadsworth Williams; a brother, Captain Philip Williams, U. S. Navy, and three sisters — Mrs. Patton, the wife of Commander J. B. Patton; Mrs. Benjamin Van Dorn Hedges, of Plainfield, N. J., and Mrs. Walter Farwell, of Soyosset, Long Island.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES

Pageant
The dancing classes have closed their work for the season, and energies will now be centered on the pageant to be given within the next few weeks.
Jack-in-the-Green is the attractive name that is sure to please the parents and friends this year at the annual pageant.

Mrs. John Scott, who has had charge of the dancing work of the Y. W. C. A., has proven a most successful instructor. Personality and capability have been combined in her interesting work and all regret the closing of the term.
Those taking part in Jack-in-the-Green will continue until the pageant.
Party
The Drama club of the Y. W. C. A. gave an April party for their friends Friday, April 8, that was greatly enjoyed by all.

Tom Marshall of Indiana filled an inconspicuous place with inconspicuous greatness. His valedictory was a gem.
In spite of the injunction about keeping our left hand in the dark about what our right hand does, there are a good many lefts and rights that work "hand in hand."

LINCOLN SCHOOL

The girls of the Ravinia school defeated the girls of the Lincoln school at the Lincoln school Tuesday evening in a game of indoor baseball. The score was 24 to 50.

PARENTS AND TEACHERS

The Lincoln school Parent-Teacher association met yesterday afternoon in the Lincoln school. The program consisted of a talk on "Upper Grade Science" by Mrs. Freeman, eighth grade teacher, and a play by the eighth grade boys, from "Mid-Summer Night's Dream." Mrs. Harvey, third grade teacher, gave a talk on the third grade English and several of the children of the third grade read stories of their own.
