J. H. Keagle, pastor

Services for Sunday, May 22 as follows:
 Sunday school at 9:45 A. M. Classes for all ages. You will be welcomed.

Morning sermon by the pastor at 10:45.

There will be no regular meeting of the Christian Endeavor society, but the evening sermon will give way to a social evangelistic service under the Endeavor society beginning at 7:30 P. M. The public is invited. Outside talent has been secured and you will miss a great treat if you fail to come.

Bible classes, next week on Monday night, and the prayer meetings on Wednesday evening.

The Evangelical Circle of the Moody Institute visited Highland Park Monday and enjoyed a beach supper and afterwards gave their monthly program in the auditorium. Rev. C. C. Talbot, a returned missionary from Hunan, China, was present and gave a pleasing address on Conditions in China. Rev. George Walter, pastor of Hoyne Ave. Evangelical church gave a short talk on the Discipline of the United Evangelical church.

The American people are told to "Say it with flowers" but the disbelievers want something more tangible than the flowers of rhetoric that they have been getting.

Under the curfew law some of these short skirted grandmothers are likely to get sent home at nine o'clock.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Subject for next Sunday's Lesson Sermon, "Soul and Body."

Services are held in this church every Sunday morning at 10:45, Sunday School meets immediately after the morning service, and is open to pupils up to the age of 20 years. The Wednesday evening meeting, which includes testimonies of Christian Science healing, is at 8 o'clock.

You are cordially invited to make use of the reading room at 387 Central avenue, which is open every week day from nine o'clock in the morning until six o'clock in the evening and Sunday afternoons from two to six o'clock.

The Girl Reserves observed Mother-Daughter week by giving a tea for their mothers Thursday, May 12. The room was prettily decorated in blue and white, the Girl Reserve colors, and spring flowers. Light refreshments were served.

The following program was given: What The Girl Reserve Means to Me
 Margaret Smith
 Camping at Druce Lake
 Mae Grimson

Poem, Mother O' Mine
 Clara Holland

Piano Duet
 Florence and Adeline Evans

Solo, Mother Macphree
 Irene Stevens

Chums, Mother and I
 Clara Holland

This is the first time Mother-Daughter week has been observed by the Highland Park Girl Reserves and all felt that it was so successful it should be an annual event.

Friendship Club Party
 Tuesday evening the Friendship club enjoyed a grown up children's party with red lemonade, stick candy and prizes all in one evening. A general good time was the order of the affair and all feel quite youthful once more.

Costumes
 The Aster club met Tuesday evening and the Rainbow Wednesday and made costumes for the pageant.

Rehearsals
 Rehearsals are going on every day for the pageant, Jack-I-The-Green to be given at the Elm Place auditorium Friday evening, May 20.
