MANY ATTEND GOLDEN ANNIVERSARY SERVICES

AT PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Two Charter Members Are Present During Celebrations Which Were Held Here Last Week

Fifty years ago on June 2nd, 1871, thirty-three men and women of the town of Highland Park gathered together at what has been variously known as Central Hall or McDonald's Hall, and formed the first Presbyterian church of Highland Park. The services were in charge of Dr. Blackburn and Rev. C. R. Wilkins of the Chicago Presbytery. The past week this church has been celebrating its fifty years of existence. It has grown from this small group of thirty-three to one of the strong churches of the Presbytery. It now numbers over four hundred members.

The services began with a communion service on the night of the anniversary day. Dr. James G. K. McClure preached the sermon and spoke of his relations with the church. The communion was served by the pastor, Rev. Frank Fitt, assisted by Dr. McClure. A most impressive service was made even more than usually effective by the presence of the twelve elders, some of whom have been connected with the church almost all of its life, and the solemnity with which it was conducted.

On Friday night a historical meeting open to the entire town was held. Pictures of those who made the church possible and gave to it of their time and means in years past, and pictures of the early life in Highland Park, with an explanatory talk by Mr. Fitt, furnished the program.

Sunday morning the historical sermon was preached by Mr. Fitt. In the afternoon a union service of all the churches in Highland Park was addressed by Dr. F. H. Shannon, pastor of the Central church and Young People's society also held special services. They were addressed by those who had

MRS. W. P. MORGAN DIED LAST MONDAY

WAS WELL KNOWN HERE

Death Occurred At Home Of Her Father, Capt. O. H. Morgan; Funeral Yesterday Afternoon

Highland Park has suffered a great loss this week in the death of one of its most beloved.

The passing away of Mrs. William Potwin Morgan which occurred on Monday has brought a sense of very personal loss to all who knew her. She had made an enviable place for herself in the hearts and lives of a large circle of friends, coming, as she did, as the bride of William P. Morgan, the eldest son of Captain and Mrs. Otho H. Morgan.

Mr. Morgan died twenty-five years ago the fourteenth of June, leaving his young widow and his infant son, William Otho Morgan.

Mrs. Morgan has lived a quiet, forceful life in our midst, so modest and retiring, only those who have benefited by her generous thoughtful and understanding heart and mind could possibly tell of her many beautiful charities. Her sympathies were always warm and outgoing.

Her quiet and faithful work in the Presbyterian Sunday school is an unwritten history, only to be read in the hearts of those she touched. It is impossible to write of her influence in the home, church and community, for it is not one or two conspicuous things which she has done, but it is of the simple Christian living an example of the charm of modesty, the strength of strong conviction, the courage and helpfulness of a Christian life.

Mrs. Morgan is survived by her son, William Otho Morgan, and her brother, Kosuth Morgan.

The funeral services were held at Mrs. Morgan's home, the residence of Captain O. H. Morgan, at three o'clock yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon. Interment was in Roschill cemetery.

However before the department had left Highland Park they received a second call informing them that the building was completely destroyed and that the Deerfield department had the fire in check and that the local department need not come.

The fire was thought to have been caused by the motor, although the origin is not definite. The electricity and water power were put out of commission on the farm by the fire. Grove farm is owned by L. D. Kellogg and neither he nor Mrs. Kellogg were at home at the time of the fire.

Representatives from the various cities from Wilmette to Waukegan attended the meeting of the Association of North Shore Municipalities, held Monday night in the Highland Park City hall.

The annual election was held with the following result:

President—Hon. John S. Miller, Jr., President, Winnetka.
Vice-President—Hon. F. W. Penfield, President, Glencoe.
Treasurer—Hon. Thos. E. Welsh, Mayor, Highwood.
Secretary—E. A. Warren.
Council—Samuel S. Holmes.

Directors: Hon. J. F. Bidinger, Mayor, Waukegan; Hon. Henry Dacon, Mayor, North Chicago; Hon. Wm. J. Vanderkloot, President, Village Lake Bluff; Hon. Henry A. Rumsey, Mayor, Lake Forest; Hon. Thos. E. Welsh, Mayor, Highwood; Hon. Samuel M. Hastings, Mayor, Highland Park; Hon. F. W. Penfield, President, Glencoe; Hon. John S. Miller, Jr., President, Winnetka; Hon. James C. Murray, President, Kenilworth; Hon. Edward Zipl, President, Wilmette; Hon. B. H. Kress, President, Deerfield.

Executive Committee: Hon. Samuel M. Hastings, Mayor, Highland Park; Hon. Henry A. Rumsey, Mayor, Lake Forest; Hon. J. F. Bidinger, Mayor, Waukegan.

A resolution was passed providing that a night letter be sent Governor Len Small, endorsing his appeal to the Legislature for greater economy. The letter follows:

"The undersigned Association, representing eleven Municipalities of the North Shore, with an aggregate population of Ninety-Thousand as follows: Waukegan, North Chicago, Lake Bluff, Lake Forest, Highwood, Highland Park, Glencoe, Winnetka, Kenilworth, Wilmette, and Deerfield, heartily endorse your appeal to the Legislature for greater economy in the expenditure of the Tax Payers' money, but do respectfully call your attention to the importance of the funds needed for the operation of the State University. Its value to the State is of such great importance that we believe it to be wise to give them the amount they ask for. The service of the University to the State, both in the development of Manhood and Womanhood, and in the information rendered to agriculture, mineral and manufacturing industry is such that the money expended on this institution comes back many fold to the tax payers of the State."

The Association also sent a night letter to the state representatives and senators as follows:

"The undersigned Association, representing eleven Municipalities of the North Shore with an aggregate population of Ninety-Thousand as follows: Waukegan, North Chicago, Lake Bluff, Lake Forest, Highwood, Highland Park, Glencoe, Winnetka, Kenilworth, Wilmette and Deerfield, are informed the Brinkman House Bill No. 274, to repeal the act of 1919 requiring detailed publication of Municipal expenses, is coming up for vote and respectfully urge its passage. We feel that act of 1919 imposes unwarranted expense on Municipalities of State.

"All items of Municipal expense are matters of public record readily accessible to everyone."
