YOUNG MEN'S CLUB DROP HARD ONE TO GLENCOE

Score 3-2 In Sunday's Game
To Meet Highwood Next
Sunday

In an exhibition game Sunday the Young Men's club lost a close decision to Glencoe. What was any man's game till the last man was out developed into a pitcher's duel between Rudolph of the locals and Miller of the visitors, with Miller coming out on the lucky end of the string. Glencoe's defense behind Pitcher Miller was flawless and this, coupled with the "breaks," was the deciding factor in the end.

The local lads started things rolling in the first inning. Therrien singled sharply, pilfered second and then scored on Baldwin's safe bingle. Elated over his hit, Baldwin became careless and was trapped between first and second.

Coming up in the third with two out Geo. Glader singled over 3rd and purloined second base on the throw in a close play and a pretty slide by George. Therrien again "hogged the spotlight" by doubling over 3rd thus scoring Glader. The locals now felt perky as they led by two runs.

But in the fourth Moeller was hit by a pitched ball, went to third on Stiekem's second hit of the afternoon and scored on Culver's infield out. Pitcher Rudolph pulled out of a bad hole in the fifth when with no outs Clavey slugged the apple for two bags. He caused Moeller to fan, Rudolph was out on a weak bunt and Stachel was an easy victim.

In the sixth Moeller singled, stole second, was sacrificed to third, Culver was safe at first and Moeller scored, tying the count at 2 all.

It was all over in the 7th when thru a comedy of errors and some bad breaks for the home boys the visitors secured the winning run, and from that time on Miller held the locals in the hollow of his hand.

END OLD LAWSUIT
REHEARING DENIED

Legal Battle Twenty Years Old For Possession Of Land

Musty documents in the Lake county court record a lawsuit based on a transaction, 20 years ago, which involves the title to a very valuable tract of land at Point Comfort, Fox Lake, on which are located several hotels and many cottages where wealthy Chicagoans and others idle away their leisure hours.

But the case is at an end. The Supreme court last week denied the petition for a re-hearing in the suit which was brought by George F. and Simon A. Cameron, of Chicago, by Atty. Homer Cooke, Waukegan, against Louis C. DeProft.

In the circuit court Judge C. C. Edwards decided against the Camerons. The case finally went to the Supreme court which decided in favor of the Camerons. The petition for re-hearing denied, the case can go no further.

DeProft operates the hotels located on the property involved.

The Passion of Propaganda

Formerly reading was a contemplative sort of act. People sat down to enjoy poetry and other works of literature in a mood of untrobbled peace. Authors wrote about the beauty of nature, and drew entertaining pictures of society. Humorists made graceful fun of life. Reading was a restful pursuit.

Nowadays, whatever you read, is hurled at our heads. Many of the ideas are good, but four fifths of them are cranky. All this may be a kind of yeasting that indicates some form of growth. But there is so much of all this ferment, that it unsettles the minds of a lot of people. They get away from the basic realities of life, and forget that propaganda must keep close to facts to accomplish any good.
