A Good Resolution

No More I'll rub and scrub my duds-I'll send 'm to the laundry. No more I'll parboil in the suds-My wash goes to the laundry. No more I'll sweat, with face all red, Till tired enough to go to bed, For there'll be clothes when I am dead-I'll send 'em to the laundry.

My life I love more than my clothes-I'll send 'em to the laundry. And why should I bear useless woes? My wash goes to the laundry.

One life is all I'll get, 'tis true, There's plenty more hard work to do, And there'll be clothes when I am through I'll send 'em to the laundry.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

A good rehearsal of Corps was held at the Center last Monday evening. More buglers are needed and all who can play or are willing to learn are requested to come out to the meetings. Another prac-tice session will be held next Monday Community Service has aranged through the District Office in Chiing motion picture called "Play and be happy". This picture will be run at the Pearl Theatre at an early date and all are invited to go there and see it. Day and date will be announced later.

Next Sunday the Young Men's Club play Glencoe at Glencoe. All loyal fans are urged to arrange to go down for this game and root for a victory. The local team has had one run jinx for the past two games, as they have lost both of them by margin of one run. Let's help them to break this jinx.

The beach season is in full swing at this time. Large crowds of bathers and canocists are daily found enjoying the water. Community Service Stipe to Soren K. Ostergaard took would be glad to arrange a Water place Saturday morning June eight- Carnival consisting of races, diving eenth at nine o'clock at the Immacul- contests, and canoe events if a sufate Conception Church, Rev.
