EDUCATION PLUS RECREATION

At the New

Field Museum of Natural History

School is out! But one of the world's greatest educational exhibits invites you every day. Parents and teachers—boys and girls—everybody—should visit this house of a thousand wonders.

Increase your knowledge and enrich your life by making frequent trips to the Museum. See these fascinating exhibits of strange races of men, of unusual phases of life, of the mar-vels of nature. Learn about the life of man in long past ages, in the far ends of earth.

The Museum is a marvel of monumental building, 700 feet long, 350 feet wide. It is beautifully located on Chicago's lake front.

Open daily, 10 A.M. to 4 P.M. Free days, Sundays, Thursdays and Saturdays. All other days, admission 25 cents.

NORTH SHORE TRAINS

leaving Highland Park regularly, take you direct to the "L" Station at Randolph and Wells Streets, where you can get an "L" train to the Roosevelt Road Station without leaving the platform. A short walk east brings you right to the entrance of the building.

"WHY MAKE REVOLVERS?" ASK R. THOMPSON

$1,000 FOR GOOD REASON

Prominent Chicago Man Wants To Know Why Manufacture Of Pistols Is Allowed

John R. Thompson of Chicago offers One Thousand Dollars to anyone who will give one good reason why the revolver manufacturing industry should be allowed to exist in America and enjoy the facilities of the mails.

Here is a vital and practical question, placed before the public in a novel and emphatic manner.

If the private manufacture of revolvers and other deadly weapons were prohibited by stringent laws, and those who should be armed were supplied by the government, would there be less murder and crime at the point of a gun?

An editorial writer in the Chicago Tribune has the following comment to make:

A friendly foursome at bridge in the south side home of Jacob Loeb paused in their game with a fair amount of good nature while a youth with revolver and ragged mask entered calmly from the wide veranda and relieved them of several hundred dollars. Any one of the four could have knocked the boy into the street if he had been unarmed. But he had a gun, and the drop on them.

With death looking them in the face they submitted quietly. Not to have done so probably would have meant a murder. Having done so, it meant a loss of hundreds of dollars. No better illustration of the full meaning of our present indiscriminate distribution of revolvers could be found. When a man and his guests in the privacy of a home must submit to robbery or murder at the hands of a youth the evils of our system begin to come home to us.

John R. Thompson has advertised that he will pay $1,000 to any one who will give one good reason why the revolver manufacturing industry should be allowed to exist in America and enjoy the facilities of the mails. His $1,000 is safer than the money the reader may have in his pocket at this moment. The revolver is designed primarily for the purpose of killing men. It's only other use is the entertainment and afforded by target practice. A bow and arrow would serve as well for that purpose.

There is not a civilian in the United States who needs a revolver for any legitimate purpose except that of self-defense. If the footpad and potential murderer did not have a gun no honest citizen would need one even on the slight pretext of self-defense.

The best single step possible toward reduction of crime in this country is to stop the manufacture of revolvers for any except military and police purposes. The sale ought to be stopped entirely. Every owner of a revolver is either a potential killer or the potential victim of some other killer. It is not fair to deprive one man of the chance of self-defense unless we deprive all men of the implement of murder. That can be done effectively by stopping the manufacture and sale of revolvers for all purposes except military and police.

Plenty of reasons may be offered to Mr. Thompson why the industry should be allowed to continue, but there will be no good reason.

CARD OF THANKS

To our friends and relatives who so beautifully expressed their sympathy and come to our relief at this time of sore bereavement, we desire to express our heartfelt thanks and sincere appreciation.

THOUGHTS ARE THINGS

I hold it true that thoughts are things; They're endowed with bodies and breath and wings; And that we send them forth to fill The world with good results or ill. That which we call our secret thought Speeds forth to earth's remotest spot, Leaving its blessings or its woes Like tracks behind it as it goes.

We build our future, thought by thought, For good or ill, yet know it not. Yet so the universe was wrought. Thought is another name for fate; Choose, then, thy destiny and wait, For love brings love and hate brings hate.

"GIVE THEM A PLACE TO PLAY"

by Denis A. McCarthy
Plenty of room for dives and dens,
(Glitter and glare and sin)
Plenty of room for prison pens,
(Gather 'em 'round in 11)
Plenty of room for jails and courts,
(Willing enough to pay!)
But never a place for the kids to race,
No, never a place to play,
Plenty of room for shops and stores,
(Hammon must have the best!)
Plenty of room for the running sores
That rot in the city's breast,
Plenty of room for the lures that lead
The hearts of our youth astray,
But never a cent on a playground spent,
No, never a place to play!
Plenty of room for schools and halls,
Plenty of room for art,
Plenty of room for tens and balls,
Platform, stage and cart,
Proud in the city—she finds a place,
For many a kid today,
But she's more than blind if she fails to find
A place for the boys to play!
Give them a chance for innocent sport,
Give them a chance for fun—
Better a playground plot than a court,
And a jail when the harm is done!
Give them a chance, if you sit them now,
Tomorrow you'll have to pay
A larger bill for a darker ill.

You will enjoy a genuine
