WON HOLIDAY GAME FROM LAKE FOREST

the throw to nab Therrien Glader slid home. He was hurt and left the game. Sheahan took his place later. On the throw home for Glader Therrien took 3rd. F. Glader grounded out.

Carlson hit the Ben Davis but was forced by Peters who took second on a wild throw to nab him at first. McGath made a sparkling play of Jackson's infield hit. Jackson stole and Kerrigan was out on a hot one to Ruddy. Roebber doubled scoring Peters and Jackson and tying the score. Metzger doubled scoring Roebber. Pelnar's single got away on account of the rough outfield and he made the circuit behind Metzger. Swift fled out.

3. Duffy got on via the "hit by pitched ball" route. Baldwin forced him, but took second on a wild throw. McGath breezed and Landis lofted again.

McGovern out to short and Carlson out to third. Peters doubled into the crowd, but Jackson whiffed in the pinch.

4. Gerkin grounded out. Rudolph started his field day here with a single. Sheahan hit into a double play. Kerrigan and Roebber both went out via the strike out route. Metzger was safe on McGath's error. He stole and took 3rd on another wild throw. Pelnar dashed hopes to the ground when he grounded out.

5. The fireworks started in the 5th. Therrien, one of the fastest leggers in the league, beat out an infield hit. Whew! how this lad runs. He took second on a wild throw. It's a wild game—the fans are insane. F. Glader fled out. Friend Duffy—he of the ever present grin—singled advancing Therrien to 3rd. Duffy showed his contempt and stole. Baldwin fouled out. There are now two outs, and Kerrigan is breathing easier. But let us see what followed. McGath was due, and he came thru with a nice single, scoring Therrien and Duffy whose counters tied the game up again. Landis grounded to 3rd who threw a wild one trying to get McGath at second. Mac promptly took third and Landis was perched on the initial bag. Then Landis stole—Oh, the petty and grand larceny that took place in this game. Gerkin, who up to this point, hadn't done much, hitched up his pants and waded into one of Kerrigan's offerings for a smart single, counting McGath and the Judge. Gerkin took 2nd on the throw at the plate. At this point had the band known what was to follow they would have started up Chopin's Funeral Dirge, for Rudolph hit one on the thumb—it sailed high over the tennis court fence and had to be brought home in relays. Meanwhile Gerkin and Ruddy strolled leisurely home. We were about to say something about Babe Ruth, but what's the use? Kerrigan now has enough and gives way to Brown who is promptly greeted with a double from the bat of Rooky Sheahan. Therrien who was up for the second time this inning grounded out. This inning was surely poison to the Foresters, and a few of the crowd began to leave. Others remained for the wake.

Swift raised hopes with a single. McGovern lined to McGath for a double killing. Carlson breezed.

6. Glader and Duffy struck out and Baldwin lofted.

Peters was out on an infield fly. Jackson also lofted. Grounded to short but Sheahan had to leave the bag to get the throw. Roebber whiffed.

7. McGath and Landis fled out. Gerkin doubled into the crowd. He took 3rd on a wild pitch, and scored on Rudolph's double. The Rooky was in the limelight again when he doubled scoring Rudolph. Therrien grounded out.

Metzger popped to Ruddy. Pelnar was safe on McGath's error. He stole. Swift lifted a fly to Therrien and McGovern fouled to Cricket.

8. F. Glader grounded out. Duffy popped to the Catcher, Baldwin singled and stole. McGath doubled scoring Baldwin. Landis grounded to short, it was a wild throw and McGath tallied while Landis took second. Gerkin was out on a roller.

Carlson singled through 3rd. Peters tripled scoring Carlson. Jackson hit a hot one to Ruddy and was thrown out. Peters scored on a wild pitch. Brown drew a free ticket. Roebber and Metzger both went out via the aerial route.

9. Rudolph singled, Sheahan and Therrien were both out on flies. F. Glader binged and took second on a wild throw. Ruddy on third. Duffy brought Rudolph in out of the sun with a timely single. He stole. Baldwin grounded out.

Pelnar got an infield hit but Swift fled out. McGovern forced Pelnar at second. Carlson was safe on McGath's low throw. Peters flew out.

Notes of the Game

It was a case of "pitch and duck" for the pitchers.

Rudolph's field day consisted of two singles, a double and a home run. This said home run came with Gerkin on, and no doubt was the longest hit ever made on the Lake Forest grounds. The ball cleared the high tennis court fence by 15 feet and landed in the second court.

It was a large and for the most part good natured crowd. Altho the rivalry was intense, and at times a few personalities were indulged in.

The "ump" was courteous, pains-taking, and altogether efficient. He was a credit to the profession.

It looked dark for the locals when George Glader was injured and had to leave the game. But Sheahan came through in the pinch and filled his shoes acceptably. His timely hitting was a feature.

A return game here will be announced soon, and is sure to attract a record breaking crowd.

Who said "lively ball!"

As a lead-off man it is hard to beat George Glader. He seems to always get on some way or other. And he is very dependable as a fielder.

Glencoe here next Sunday is the program. Altho defeated in their last game with the locals this team puts up a scrappy game, and may spring a surprise.
