BOY DROWNED AT NORTH CHICAGO WAS PUSHED OFF THE PIER

Primary Election Will Come Earlier Next Year; Other Items of Lake County News

Stanley, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Felix Dzinsziwska, 1286 Victoria street, North Chicago, was drowned in Lake Michigan Friday afternoon about three o'clock when a boy companion pushed him off the pier opposite the American Steel and Wire company plant. A nine-year-old brother of the little victim was swimming nearby at the time, but was unable to save his brother's life.

Lake county will elect five county officials in November 1922, and these must be nominated at the April primary next year. The offices to be filled and the incumbents thereof are: county judge, P. L. Parsons; county clerk, Lew A. Hendee; probate judge; probate clerk; treasurer, Roy Bracher; sheriff, Elmer Green; superintendent of schools, T. A. Simpson. Because the new census shows that Lake county has over 70,000 inhabitants, the office of county clerk and county judge will be divided, and a probate judge and clerk, as well as a county judge and clerk, will be elected. The new primary law amendment changes the time of the primary from the second Wednesday in September to the second Wednesday in April.

George Zeitz of Waukegan in a suit filed in Judge C. C. Edwards' court charges that his landlady, Mrs. Rose Taylor, 212 Tenth street, Waukegan, is withholding $12,000 that rightfully belongs to him. He claims that Mrs. Taylor took charge of his finances eight years ago, and that she has since never made any accounting to him.

Dissatisfied with their wages of $9 per day, about twenty bricklayers quit their jobs at the Johns-Manville plant in Waukegan last week. About half of the entire force left. The company has been paying the men 90 cents an hour for a ten-hour day.

A large tarantula was captured last week at the Great Lakes Fruit company in Waukegan. Meyer Klass and other employes of the firm captured the animal with a shovel. Its large hairy legs were about two or three inches long, and as large as a straw. The body was as large as a small mouse.

For the second time within two months, Charles Kennedy, proprietor of a resort at Druce lake, was tried and found guilty in county court last Thursday afternoon on a charge of having intoxicating liquor for sale in his place of business.

Dr. L. H. Tombaugh of Waukegan was elected president of the Lake county Medical association, at the annual meeting at Libertyville last Thursday. Dr. James L. Miller of North Chicago was elected vice-president, and Dr. C. S. Ambrose secretary. Plans were made for an outing later this month.

ANOTHER DROWNED AT DIAMOND LAKE

Charles Thompson, Chicago, Suffers the Consequences of "Rocking the Boat"

Clark Thompson, aged 14, 523 W. 42nd place, Chicago, was drowned in Diamond Lake Sunday night about 5 o'clock, when a boat in which he and three companions from Chicago were riding capsized. The other two boys wore their bathing suits but Thompson was fully clothed. He apparently could not swim, or if he could swim his clothing impeded his efforts to such an extent that he could not keep above the water. Witnesses say the boys had been rocking the boat.

A number of boys had made the trip to Diamond lake in a truck to spend the day. With young Thompson in the boat were William Porter, Edward Beckwith and Elmer Cloud, all of Chicago.

Porter nearly lost his life in trying to save that of his friends. As he saw Thompson struggling in the water he swam to him and tried to hold him up, at the same time striving to calm his fears. However, Thompson was thrashing about wildly and threw his arms about Porter's neck, nearly strangling him and pulling him under the water. It took every ounce of strength Porter possessed to free himself from the death embrace. In another moment he also would have drowned but friends who came up in a canoe held his head above the water and rowed to shore. He was completely exhausted. It is said that Thompson's body sank in at least twenty feet of water.

It is not true that the American people know nothing about history, as they can all give a full account of the Silk Shirt Era.

Being urged to cultivate habits of observation, the young men are giving the girls very careful and minute inspection.

EX-SERVICE MEN TO BE ASSISTED

PERSHING ISSUES ORDER

Contact Is Established Between the War Department and Bureau of War Risk Insurance

One of the first official acts of General John J. Pershing, upon assuming his new duties as chief of staff of the army on July 1, was the issuing on that day of an order establishing contact between the War Department and the Bureau of War Risk Insurance for the purpose of keeping former service men informed of their rights under the War Risk Act and aiding them in securing these benefits through the co-operation of the personnel of the Army with the Bureau of War Risk Insurance.

This order, General Order No. 27, issues the following instructions to practically the entire Army: Assistance for ex-service men in their relations with the Bureau of War Risk Insurance. (1). It is the purpose of the War Department, acting through its available personnel, to assist ex-service men in every possible way in securing contact with the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, thus enabling them, without delay, to renew or convert their insurance, to secure medical or dental treatment, hospitalization or vocational training, or to present their claims for compensation.

(2). The obligation is imposed upon all personnel adjutants throughout the Army, recruiting officers, and regular officers on duty with the National Guard and Organized Reserves, to aid their less fortunate comrades. Such officers will at once familiarize themselves with the orders and circulars relating to the War Risk Insurance Bureau, in so far as these instructions refer to reactivation instructions refer to renewal or conversion of insurance, compensation, medical or dental treatment, hospitalization and vocational training so that intelligent assistance and advice may be afforded ex-service men in regard to their relations with the Bureau.

(3). The officers mentioned will obtain without delay direct from the War Risk Insurance Bureau, a supply of all blank forms needed by ex-service men in their contact with this Bureau.

Upon application from ex-soldiers, the officers mentioned in paragraph (2) will furnish blank forms, will assist in the preparation of applications, will carefully examine all papers or instructions on the forms in question and will themselves promptly forward the completed applications or statements directly to the Bureau of War Risk Insurance, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C. (004.61, A.G.O.)

By order of the Secretary of War: JOHN J. PERSHING, General of the Armies, Chief of Staff

CARS CRASHED ON DANGEROUS CURVE

The dangerous "S" turn north of Waukegan on Sheridan road, was responsible for another automobile accident Thursday night about 6:00 o'clock. E. L. Brown, a Zion salesman who makes frequent trips to this city, was driving home in his silver. His 12-year-old son, Byron, was riding with him. As he approached the "S" turn he saw another car approaching from the north at a terrific rate of speed. The driver appeared unfamiliar with the roads and his car skidded to the extreme left hand side of the road, plowing along in the soft dirt outside the pavement. Brown saw that the approaching car was out of control and tried to avoid the accident but in vain. A moment later, the big Buick car crashed into him, tearing off two wheels, smashing the running board, fenders and wind-shield and ruining the rear axle. The Buick car also suffered heavy damage. Mr. Brown's son was hurled out of the car and he himself suffered a cut on the head from the flying glass.
