America Unafraid

To the graduates of the Annapolis Naval Academy President Harding said:

"I want you to help make this a Republic of conscience, a Republic of sympathy, strength and high ideals—America unafraid."

On the books of this Institution are written the records of individual citizens who are doing their part to make this community representative of America's strength and high ideals.

This is America's birthday month. Why not observe it by adding substantially to your bank account—for strength?

THE NORTH SHORE CONTRACT ORDINANCE

Electors of Highland Park will be called upon to vote on the proposed contract ordinance of the Chicago North Shore and Milwaukee Railroad, at the special election to be held July 23.

While a policy of "open diplomacy" was pursued in the negotiations which led up to a tentative acceptance of the ordinance by the city and the railroad representatives, and while the full ordinance has been made public through the columns of The Press, there are no doubt numbers of our citizens who have not given the subject much consideration.

The Press has made a careful study of the ordinance and has not been able to discover a single section in which the interests of the city are not safeguarded. In fact we think it is a credit to the city officials who negotiated the contract. As far as we are able to judge the acceptance of the ordinance by the people on a referendum, will be a decided advantage to the city.

In all matters of this kind, some opposition always will be found. Some individuals will oppose anything which might seem to be a benefit to a public utility company, without much regard to the merits of the particular case. There is less, perhaps, of that spirit in Highland Park than in many other communities, for the reason that our citizens generally have a high degree of intelligence and are capable of judging a proposition on its merits. We believe that if the proposed contract ordinance is considered strictly on its merits, it will be carried by a large majority.

It must be admitted, even by those who are opposed to public utility companies on general principles, that the North Shore Line has given, and is giving Highland Park, as well as other communities, a good class of service. It has been operating without a franchise for some time and no doubt it will continue to operate, whether the present ordinance is adopted or rejected. It must continue to operate, because the comfort and convenience of our citizens require such operation. That being the case, it appears to us that the logical thing is to give the company the ordinance it seeks, so that the city may reap the benefits which will accrue to it under the terms of the contract.

The opening of St. Johns avenue to traffic, where it is now practically closed by the railroad, will be of great benefit to the city. There are a number of features in the ordinance which are decidedly to the city's advantage, while, of course, the railroad also gets benefits. All measures of this kind are in the nature of compromises and the present ordinance is no exception to that general rule. It has been a case of give and take, but as far as we can see by careful reading of the contract, the railroad has been obligated to give the city as much as the city accords the road.

We are of the opinion that the ordinance should be adopted in the best interests of the city, and we believe it will be if our citizens show sufficient interest in the matter to go to the polls and cast their votes. The danger in such matters always is the lack of interest shown by the voters in special elections of this kind. Those who are opposed to the ordinance, if there are any, will no doubt go to the polls and cast their votes according to their convictions. Those who believe the ordinance to be in line with progress, who are anxious to see the city grow and its transportation facilities develop, should also go to the polls and cast their ballots.

The ordinance is the result of a great deal of painstaking and conscientious work on the part of our city officials. Our citizens ought to show that they appreciate such work, by going to the polls to vote at the special election July 23.

WHEN years intervene and the springboard takes the place of the sandy beach, turn the pages of your Kodak album.

There she is—the curly headed mite who found a tin pail and splattered feet quite exciting enough. How old was she then? "Long Beach 6/18/21"—the autographic record that you wrote on the film at the time holds the answer. There is advantage in inspecting our complete stock—every Kodak made is ready for you to look at here.
