left that would have been good for the circuit but the strong wind carried it foul. He breezed.

FIFTH — Doutry, the Tarran of the willow, hit one on the bank and made the circuit for a Babe Ruth. White fled out to Landis. Ritchie out Ruddy to Glader. Gayle out Martin to Glader.

G. Glader was safe on a fumble. Therrien out on a fly ball. F. Glader walked. Doutry did the same. The bases were choked. Sheaben hit to first forcing Glader at home. Landis came up and batted with the bases full.

SIXTH — Macklin out on attempted bunt. Kennet singled through F. Glader. Sykes out F. Glader to G. Glader. Kennet safe at second. Dixon out. Therrien to G. Glader. Martin hit by pitched ball. Gerkin whiffed. Ruddy hit a line drive to second who made a sensational shooting catch. G. Glader filed out.

SEVENTH — Reese out Martin to G. Glader. Doutry singled to left. White fouled out to G. Glader. Ritchie struck out.

Therrien grounded out. F. Glader out on a line drive to second. Doutry safe on a short hit over second. Sheaben grounded out to first.

EIGHTH — Gayle fanned. Macklin out Ruddy to Glader. Kennet doubled to right. Sykes walked. Kennet took third on a wild pitch. Dixon out Martin to Glader.

NINTH — Reese struck out. Doutry out F. Glader to G. Glader. White safe and took second on over throw. Ritchie fanned.

G. Glader fouled out. Therrien safe on a scratch hit. F. Glader doubled, putting Therrien on third. Doutry lefted. Therrien counting. Sheaben out at first.

OPEN LETTER TO PRESS PROTESTS HIGHWOOD DAY

Rev. H. D. Dick Gives Explanation of Opposition to Business Men's Plan Aug. 14

The Business Men's association of Highwood has done the unprecedented thing in selecting Sunday, the 14th inst., for a community day celebration. The members did this in their own name, not taking into consideration the fact that a large number of citizens would take exception to such a course. A committee of five called upon one of the prominent officials with the result that the chairman of the committee was asked to present the protest and views at the meeting of the association Wednesday, the 3rd inst. This was done. A full, complete and clear statement of the objections was presented to the association. It was shown that:

- (1) A community day as such and all that goes with it, on Sunday was without precedent.
- (2) It was an injustice for any body of men to impose such a thing on the large number of people who were opposed to it without first ascertaining their views and making the proper adjustments.
- (3) To hold such a celebration would be detrimental rather than beneficial. After hearing this statement of objections the association declared:

- (1) They had not thought of these things and were innocent of any wrong intentions.
- (2) The organization is young; the funds scarce; considerable had already been spent on advertising and it was impracticable to change the date.
- (3) They expressed regret for the oversight.
- (4) They thanked the chairman of the committee for his presence and suggestions and declared that greater care would be exercised in the future.

So that in fact the occasion next Sunday afternoon will be under the auspices of the Highwood Business association or a business men's picnic and will not be in the name of the community.

12,000 PAY TRIBUTE TO ENRICO CARUSO

throughout his brilliant career. The Inflammatus from Stabat Mater, as sung by Frances Peralta, deserves special mention, as indeed does every number on the program, each being well worthy of signal attention and praise.

The selection of the program for this great memorial has been pronounced by musicians everywhere as a very felicitous one. Following is the context of the program as given out to the vast audience last Sunday, the fitting tribute of Mr. Eckstein appearing at the top of the page:

"In the passing of Enrico Caruso the world has lost not alone a great artist, but a great man. For Caruso was great in spirit no less than in achievement — great in his possession of all those qualities that are endearing in life and enduring in memory. Springing from the soil as he did — whence all great genius springs — there is some alleviation of the world's regret in his passing, that the end should have come to him on the soil of his dearly loved Italy. By his friends it is all but impossible to realize that the sun will not be seen and felt again, and by the millions throughout Europe and the two Americas that his voice of gold is stilled forever. — Louis Eckstein.

In Choosing Your Bank

It is well to ascertain:

- How long has the bank been established?
- What is the amount of its capital and surplus?
- Is it properly and regularly supervised and examined?
- Are its officers and directors men of ability and standing?
- Has it won the community's confidence by its service, conduct and banking record?

Much credit is due Mr. Eckstein who, upon the death of Caruso, immediately conceived the idea of a Memorial at Ravinia park, and so ably put his project into execution. This memorial day at Ravinia Park is a thing that will not soon be forgotten by those who saw and felt it. The solemn tribute to the great tenor paid by his sorrowing countrymen is a thing which will last while memory lives. It was not a Chicago day although the traffic records tell us most of the crowd came from Chicago, nor was it a North Shore day. It was a day of nations, Russian, French, German, but mostly it was a day for the Italian people, who, according to one estimate, formed three fourths of the crowd. They were everywhere in evidence, walking with lunch kits on their arms, and reverence and deep consecration in their dark eyes. They have much to teach us, this great beauty-loving nation who sing while they work. They are the true lovers of song, and everybody sings under their sunny skies. The Italian people knew what they came to Ravinia Park for, and they were amply rewarded for their quest. They came for no material thing, but that they might touch with reverent fingers afar off a thing of Beauty, of Truth, and of God.

Would that the gates of Ravinia park could be opened to this music loving people every Sunday afternoon. If through the death of Caruso, the Italian people could be vouchsafed the privilege of an "old-world day" once a week at Ravinia Park, the new-world could never consecrate a more fitting monument to the memory of the great tenor.

COMMUNITY SERVICE

The Community Service class in Americanization was given quite a treat at the class on last Tuesday evening. The members had as their teacher for the evening Professor S. M. Delson, who is professor and head of the department of romance languages of Hamline university of St. Paul, Minn. Prof. Delson is summering in Highland Park, and when he heard of the indisposition of Miss Gertrude Chandler, teacher of the class, he kindly volunteered to take the class. Prof. Delson has kindly volunteered to assist with the classes while here, or until such time as Miss Chandler recovers sufficiently to resume her work with the class.

Dance at Ft. Sheridan
Another dance for the Vets' vacation camp will be held at the Fort next Saturday evening. It is our turn again to furnish about 50 young ladies and Community Service asks all who would like to go to communicate with the executive secretary at the Center. Invitations will be issued from the Center as Mrs. Seary of the Y. W. C. A. is still absent from town. These dances have been a pleasant feature of the summer and have been highly enjoyed by those attending. More girls are needed than before on account of the arrival of a number of college boys who are invited.
