BETTER TIMES IN SIGHT

Evidence is accumulating that the business depression which began almost 18 months ago, is about to be followed by a period of substantial activity, according to the Manufacturers' News. Plants which have been practically idle for a long period are preparing to resume operations. Industries which have been out of the market since the beginning of the year are again accumulating stocks of raw materials.

Steel mills which have been closed for months, and railway equipment and repair shops in all parts of the country are once more employing thousands of men and holding out a promise that before long every wheel will be turning.

Paper mills, the cotton and woolen textile industries, carpet and rug plants, and a score of other important manufacturing lines are relieving the labor situation. The makers of agricultural implements, confident that as soon as this year's crops are harvested there will be an unprecedented demand for their products, are formulating operating plans for the coming season.

There is nothing sensational about this nation-wide confidence in a general business revival. It is just an expression of spontaneous faith in the resources of the nation, and the common sense of the people. The normal condition of the United States is one of prosperity, and the enthusiasm and enterprise of American business men are proof against the lamentation of pessimists.

With labor in a mood to accept reasonable wage reductions, and industrial leaders willing to be satisfied with pre-war profits, there is no reason why every legitimate aspiration of manufacturer, producer, buyer, and seller should not be satisfied before the snow flies.

There is a tide in the affairs of nations, as well as of men which taken at its flood leads on to fortune. America's business men are taking advantage of today's turn of the tide.

LAKE COUNTY'S BIGGEST FAIR

The Lake County Fair, which is opening at Libertyville, Sept. 5, and will continue until and including Sept. 9, both day and evening, is to be the banner event of the Lake County association. This fair will stand out as the biggest event of its kind in Illinois. Many interesting attractions have been added which will increase the interest of persons along the entire north shore. A $200,000 automobile show, including passenger and pleasure cars, trucks, and tractors, will be one of the feature events. Famous herds of Lake County's choicest cattle will compete with southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois herds. Fancy poultry from all over the state has been entered.

The horse show, always a big event, will be greater than ever this year. The best that the state affords has been entered. Lake Forest is putting on a special show of its own. In addition there will be a wonderful exhibit of flowers and vegetables.

Every afternoon there will be horse races, twenty of the best blood animals competing. Aeroplane stunts, baseball games, and bicycle races will be on each day's program. The evening will end with a big display of fireworks.

Everyone is assured a good time, and it is hoped that the people of this district will give their support to the fair. A successful fair means a boost for Lake county.

SCHOOL OF MUSIC GETS NEW TEACHERS

Plans Being Made for Big Year; Usual Course of Concerts is Promised

Lake Forest University School of Music is looking forward to a promising year with a much increased enrollment both in resident and day students.

Two new faculty members have been added to the piano department. Eugenia d'Albert, daughter of the great pianist, Teresa Carreno, has sailed from Norway to become one of the resident faculty of the Music School. Helen Reichert, a graduate of this school, who has been studying in New York and teaching at Sweet Briar college, will also return as resident instructor. A course in Public School Music is being added under the direction of Florence Crane, who has charge of all the Public School Music in Glencoe. She has also had wide experience in training children's choruses. A course in rhythmic dancing is also being planned.

The school is better equipped than ever to take charge of the musical education of children and grown-ups. There will be special courses in ensemble, sight-reading, and ear-training, as well as a course in appreciation of music. Residents of Lake Forest, Highland Park, and the vicinity will be welcomed as day students in regular or special courses. Early registration is advisable since the indications are that the time of all of the instructors will be filled.

The usual course of subscription concerts is being planned. Further details will be given next week.

PUBLIC HEALTH

No case of Infantile Paralysis has been reported for more than a month. Inasmuch as previous epidemics, whether in the east or the west, have all lessened after August 15th, it is probable that the greatest danger for this year, is past.

The situation for all contagious disease is very good, only one case, of whooping cough, having been reported in the past ten days.

The schools open soon, and parents are urged to have their children properly vaccinated, before mingling with other children.

BOARD OF HEALTH

The children are looking forward eagerly to going back to school, as they want to have some fun bothering the teacher.
