No Hiding Place Is Safe

Bait for the burglar, the tramp and the sneak-thief — that's what the dollars hidden away in your home are. Only they're poor bait — the owner is the only one who gets caught.

Such dollars are not performing their true function. They are out of circulation. They are not even earning their salt.

We're glad to employ them for you and pay interest. Use our Savings Department.

PEASE'S QUESTION BIRD

Should a person keep medicines in the house? An Answer:— We believe that a man's health needs regulating as often as his clock does!

THE FOLKS who object to keeping a well stocked medicine chest in the home are the first ones to send to the drug store for help when Old Man Pain touches them where they live. There are a lot of really dependable remedies that you should keep in the house. We sell them at the proper prices.
