REMEMBRANCE

Days of sadness still come o'er us. Secret tears still often flow, But memory keeps our Carrie near us. Though she died three years ago.

From loving mother sisters and brother,
Mrs. M. Dietrick.

CARD OF THANKS

I avail myself of this means to express my heartfelt thanks to the many who gave such sincere expression of their sympathy by word and deed during my bereavement, especially to the members of the Lutheran church. I also gratefully acknowledge the kind treatment of my beloved wife in her last days and of her little babe by the Highland Park Hospital, her nurse, Miss Morgan, and the doctors Hinn, Rogers and Grady who attended upon her.

W. F. Suhr.

The legislatures of 15 of the central states enacted 5,368 new laws at the sessions this year, but up to date it has not been reported that the people were behaving any better.

The girls who parade down the streets in pink dresses and blue sweaters probably find fault if people stare at them.

In the bright lexicon of youth there is no such word as "yes." "Sure" and "you bet" have taken its place.

You can't stir up a boy by telling him he might get to be president, but watch him brace himself if you tell him he might become a Babe Ruth.

The chief purpose of the family automobile, according to the young crowd, is to take them out on the dark country roads after supper.

It was noticed that the girls showed their modesty and stopped rolling their stockings down, when they discovered that the habit made their ankles fatter.

The Americans favor disarmament for the Japs, and the Japs favor it for the Americans.
