DRIVE IS EXTENDED; FEW HAVE SUBSCRIBED

Salvation Army Quota for Highland Park $1,000; County Quota $10,000

The Salvation Army drive in this city has been indefinitely continued because only a small amount has been subscribed. Local residents are asked to fill out the $1000 city quota. Thus far only $21 has been donated to the fund.

All of the money raised in Lake County will be spent in Lake county. Other cities in the county are filling their quotas, and those in charge of the local drive are determined to raise the $1000 asked for here. Contributions may be left at the city hall.

CARD OF THANKS
Eleanor Flannigan of Highwood wishes to thank her friends in Highland Park and Highwood who supported her in the popularity contest conducted by St. James' Catholic club at their recent bazaar.

RAVINA CIVIC CLUB
Under the auspices of the Ravina Woman's Civic club, a class of 28 in each, parliamentary law and public speaking, began Thursday morning, Oct. 6, for a course of ten lessons with Mrs. George W. Plummer as instructor.

BRIEF AND BREEZY
After voting for smart talkers for public office, in preference to men who have made good in business, many people are unable to see why so many things have gone wrong in this country.

The women who vote for the handsomest men are probably the wives of the men who vote for the most genial handshakers.

The deer, squirrel, ducks, etc., aren't much anxious about the advent of all these city sportsmen, but the other hunters should worry.

The whiskey smugglers may be exercising their ingenious brains a little later in getting the comforts of life smuggled into their jail cells.

So far none of the women's clubs has reported any difficulty in arranging their programs as the result of inability to get the women folks to talk.

The peace treaties with Germany will probably be signed by the time everyone who fought in the war is dead.

Learning at school that there is great danger from malnutrition, the kids on reaching home immediately make a rush for the cookie jar.

Highly colored drawn work handkerchiefs are going to be much in evidence as Christmas presents.

The American home is now known at the starting place for a nightly trip to the movies or an attack on the piano player.

We held a two dollar bill in our hand the other day while we asked the price of a slight service. There was no change.

If you want to start an endless argument, discuss whether boys or girls are most expensive to bring up.

DR. LLOYD MOSS BERGEN

For 22 years, Dr. Bergen acted as President of the Board of Health of the City of Highland Park without compensation. What he has done for the City of Highland Park is best expressed by a resolution of the Council of the City, passed in May of this year when Dr. Bergen tendered his resignation as President of the Board of Health, as follows:

"FOR THAT WHEREAS, Dr. Lloyd M. Bergen has acted as President of the Board of Health of the City of Highland Park for twenty-two years and in such capacity has given his time unselfishly to the duties of his office for the protection of the citizens of Highland Park and has thereby earned the thanks and appreciation of the entire community, and

"WHEREAS, the Council has recognized with regret the announcement of Dr. Bergen's inability to longer continue to assume the responsibilities of the Chairman of the Board of Health and his request not to be reappointed as such Chairman

"NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, That the Council by this Resolution convey to Dr. Bergen the City's thanks and the assurance of its appreciation for the great service he has so unselfishly rendered the City in the past.

"BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That this Resolution be spread upon the records of the City of Highland Park and a suitable copy thereof be sent to Dr. Bergen."

Dr. Bergen took an interest in the public schools of Highland Park and in the health of the pupils and was largely instrumental in obtaining and maintaining a visiting nurse for the school children of the public schools of Highland Park.

During the war, Dr. Bergen was of great assistance to the Local Board having charge of the draft and devoted much time and energy to assisting the Board in the physical examination of the registrants, all without compensation.

Dr. Bergen had long dreamed of a hospital in Highland Park, where the sick and afflicted could receive such attention as their particular ailment might demand, and was largely instrumental in originating and organizing the Highland Park hospital, and ever since his dream has become a reality, he had been President of the Hospital Staff of Physicians. Dr. Bergen devoted himself to obtaining for the hospital an X-ray apparatus and equipment, of which there is no finer in the country.

Dr. Bergen was undoubtedly helped and his interest very largely drawn toward this branch of hospital work by reason of his former practical training as a mechanic in the Allis Works in Milwaukee. Just prior to his death, he had taken what he called a vacation in visiting the various hospitals in the east that made a specialty of X-ray equipment and treatment and in attending a meeting of experts on these subjects.

In other words, Dr. Bergen devoted a large portion of his time, at personal sacrifice both in matters of finance and of health, to the betterment of the health of this community.

To those who knew Dr. Bergen intimately, while they could not help but admire him for the service he was rendering to the community by his work as a physician, yet they were more impressed with the universality of his mind. Dr. Bergen realized that no man could be a success in his business or profession without a hobby to relieve his mind from the tension of his work, and Dr. Bergen's hobbies astonished, delighted and amused his friends. He was a great reader and well up on all topics of the day. He loved a game of chess and was no mean opponent. He became interested in photography and some of the composite pictures made by him are works of art. He was fond of music and when attending the Lake Forest Academy, organized and led a band. He played the cornet and developed into an artist of considerable ability on this instrument. Later he took up the cello and organized an orchestra in Highland Park, as a member of which he played this instrument. He also became interested in pastel work — colored chalk — and in etching, and was an artist at both. In fact, Dr. Bergen was an artist at whatever he undertook.

Dr. Bergen was fond of the outdoors, fond of the woods, and like all good men, fond of fishing, knowing that this pursuit would relieve him from the tension and wear and tear of his practice. To truly appreciate the kindness of heart and breadth of mind, of Dr. Bergen, one should have accompanied him on one of these fishing trips, where he was free from all care and worry of his profession and his nature expanded to the call of the wild.

The foundation of all religion and of all the humanities is service and Dr. Bergen without stint gave service to his family, to his friends, to his patients, and to the community at large. Whatever our teachings or beliefs may be in regard to immortality, we must all feel that Dr. Bergen, through his service, is immortal, in the sense that his service will live on through us, who were his family, his friends, his patients and his neighbors.

Dr. Bergen leaves to survive him his wife Agnes A. Bergen, a daughter Mrs. Charles I. Mansur, a son Lloyd V. Bergen, a sister Norah B. McFarland and a brother Mr. George B. Bergen.

Funeral services were held yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon at two o'clock at the Presbyterian church, the Rev. Frank Fitt officiating. Interment was made in Rosehill cemetery.

The active pallbearers were Messrs. Fred Hoynton, James Martin, Edwin Page, Fred Preston, John Mackenzie, John Washburn, and the honorary pallbearers were: Drs. A. R. Sheldon, H. B. Roberts, D. W. Rogers, Frank Ingalls, Arthur Byfield, William Speed, James Fitzgerald, Edwin McCross, John O'Neill, R. B. Jackson, Carleton Harkness, James Williams, B. A. Hamilton, F. Wiley, J. M. C. J. Davis, J. L. Taylor, W. C. Dufforth, Carl B. Davis, B. N. Farrington, Theo. S. Proxmire, Clifford P. McCullough, George Weaver, H. J. Ullmann, Messrs. Richmond Dean, W. H. Baldwin, E. V. Price, Fred Gushier, R. W. Schumacher, C. E. Wilson, St. R. Glidden and William R. Tappan.

At a special meeting of the Staff of the Highland Park Hospital, held October 17, 1921, called following the death of its President, the late Dr. Lloyd M. Bergen, the following resolutions were adopted and ordered spread on its minutes:

"WHEREAS, Our esteemed colleague and President, Dr. Lloyd M. Bergen, has been removed from our midst and the community has lost one of its most distinguished and most active in the foundation of the hospital; a public spirited and progressive citizen; and one who was unstintingly of his abundant efforts for the good of his fellow-citizens. Therefore,

"BE IT RESOLVED, That the Staff of the Highland Park Hospital extend their sincere sympathy to his family in their great loss.

H. B. ROBERTS, President.
ARTHUR F. BYFIELD, Secretary.

CATHOLIC WOMAN'S LEAGUE OPENS SEASON

First Meeting Held Thursday in Winnetka Woman's Club Building

The North Shore Catholic Women's League resumed its activities for the coming club year by giving a reception on Thursday, Oct. 13, at the Winnetka Woman's Club. The president of the league, Mrs. A. E. Tilroe, extended a cordial welcome to members and their guests and outlined a year of enterprise and promise. The program was one of unusual interest. Little Miss Patsy Krafthefer delighted all with her graceful dancing. Raymond D. Kromer, speaker of the hour, took as his subject "Woman, Pagan, Christian and Modern." He congratulated Woman on her present equality with Man and pointed out the wonderful opportunities. He also spoke of the defects of the modern woman and made an inspiring appeal for loftier ideals of womanhood. Mr. Glen Drake, tenor, gave a most pleasing rendition of several of the songs. The half hour over the incense gave the social opportunity so much enjoyed by all. "As is customary" "Bundle Day" was observed and the social service chairman received many contributions.

which they encountered and came, gave those present a deep appreciation, if possible, for the pioneers of the Highland Park Woman's Club.

The following charter members of the Highland Park Woman's Club were present at the meeting: Mesdames George Cummings, Edward Brown, H. C. Sampson, David Erskine, Edward Laing, Nathalie Riper, William Dooley, J. E. Rogerson, F. B. Greene, Fred Schaefer, C. G. Noerenberg, Frank Clark, William Grant.

The next meeting of the Highland Park Woman's Club will be held in the Auditorium of the Presbyterian Church, Wednesday, November 2, at 2:30 p. m. Harrison M. Wild, who is conductor of the Apollo Musical Club will give an informal talk on "Oratorias" illustrated with selections from the oratorios by Elsie Hartman Arendt, soprano; Agnes Haupt, tenor, with Edgar Nelson at the piano.

This is an open meeting to which every man, woman and child in Highland Park is invited. The date of the regular meeting of the club has been changed from Tuesday, November 2, to Wednesday, November 3, owing to the inability of Mr. Wild to appear on the date of our regular meeting. The full program will be published in next week's issue.

LYCEUM COURSE TO BEGIN NOVEMBER

The new plan will start with these home talent classes, a number of professional attractions secured through the Redpath lyceum bureau, and the total series of eight concerts will cost only a few cents each. The plan is to sell a general ticket that will admit the entire family, regardless of size. The attractions will appear in the auditorium of Elm Place school, and as the capacity is limited to about 600, those who wish to get season tickets should reserve them now with Mr. Hartman at the Center.

The course opens on Friday, November 4, when the committee will present Eugene Laurant and company. This is a company of magicians, and one of the best in this country. Next week's paper will carry pictures and a full account of the attractions.
