WOMEN JURORS HEAR CASE IN KENOSHA
 Mixed Jury in That City Finds Defendant Guilty of Bootlegging

The first case to be tried by a mixed jury of men and women in Kenosha county resulted last week in a verdict of guilty. Mrs. Ida Martin was chosen foreman.
 It was the trial of one Julius Blochdorf, charged with unlawfully selling intoxicating liquor.
 It was noticeable during the court hearing that the women were somewhat self-effusive, and especially when they were being questioned by counsel as to their qualifications as jurors, from time to time their voices were so low and retreating that it was difficult to catch their answers.
 But once in the jury room it was not so. Those who sat in the court room awaiting could ever and anon distinguish the voices of the women among the jurors raised in strenuous argumentation, and making themselves clearly heard, although there were eight men in the jury as against four women.
 The four women were, besides the foreman, Mrs. Martin, Caroline Barrows, Elizabeth Kaufman and Mary Moore. When the jury was discharged by the court, the women, their robes duty done, hurried into the rest room, and their first thought was of their homes and families.
 Mrs. Barrows flew to the telephone to communicate with her husband, J. J. Barrows, who is one of the supervisors of the county board. One of the humors of the situation was that about nine o'clock Barrows called up the court house and wanted to know in a plaintive voice if the jury wasn't out yet and his wife released.

Denied that the college boys are not interested in debates, as they have extended discussions as to who is the prettiest girl.

OPINION OF JUDGE EDWARDS SUSTAINED
 Appellate Court in Session at Ottawa Affirms Six Cases

Ottawa, Ill.—Judge Claire C. Edwards, of Lake county who will preside at the trial of Governor Len Small, was completely affirmed in six cases and partially affirmed in two cases by the Appellate Court of the Second District, which last Friday handed down opinions in forty-seven cases. The Lake County Circuit Court stands at the top of all the counties in the district in the number of cases and also in the number of affirmations in the latest batch of Appellate Court opinions.
 The record made by Judge Edwards in these trials is the more commendable when it is known that cases were reviewed from the trial court of five judges who are also members or have been members of Appellate Courts in this state: Judges Harry M. Waggoner, John M. Neihaus, Edgar Eldredge, Emery C. Graves and Oscar E. Heard.
 Of the forty-seven opinions, the trial court was affirmed in twenty-three, reversed in twenty and in four cases the trial court was affirmed in part and reversed in part.

COMMUNITY WORK OF RED CROSS

Chapters Show Splendid Work for Soldiers and in Health Lines

All over Illinois there is an increased interest manifest in the many activities of the American Red Cross. The membership of 298,438 persons in the 128 Chapters shows the far-reaching enthusiasm and the scope of the many activities which comprise the present Red Cross program.
 Every part of the state is supporting the work for ex-service men, with five U. S. P. H. S. hospitals caring for ex-service men. This medical social service work is one of the principal activities in each of these hospitals, not only providing recreation, but in assisting the men to adjust their various difficulties.
 There have been 10,400 ex-service men served by local Red Cross Chapters during the past year. In addition, 1,521 disabled men still in service have been helped in various ways. World war veterans and their families to the number of 105,522 have been served by Chapters, which have expended $410,000 in this work. Throughout the nation $10,000,000 is being spent annually by the Red Cross in helping ex-service men and their families.
 Also 63,525 patients in hospitals at army camps and naval stations have been visited by Red Cross workers this year. In addition 10,188 enlisted men have been served by Chapters.
 Important as is the work for soldiers and their families, the health program of the Red Cross is filling an equal need in every community where it has been developed. There are 2,542 nurses enrolled with the Red Cross in Illinois. These nurses are qualified according to Red Cross standards for service in war and emergency.
 Forty-two Chapters are employing public health nurses for community work. During the past year 66 Red Cross public health nurses have been employed by various Chapters in the state. Their work has been in the schools, in teaching children health and sanitation, as well as reaching the homes of the community through personal visits.
 Women in the state have shown great interest in the classes in Home Hygiene and Care of the Sick, which have been carried on in connection with the work of Red Cross Chapters. During the past year 2,541 persons have received certificates in the 319 classes which have been conducted.
 The strong health program of the Red Cross, in addition to Home Nursing instructions, include classes in First Aid, Nutrition, and Life-Saving. Much of this work is along preventive lines and designed to prevent accidents or spread of contagion. There have been 3,533 children enrolled in the 155 Nutrition classes in connection with the work of the schools this past year.
 In addition to this work in Nutrition, 448 women have completed courses in Food Selection. As the majority of these women were home makers, approximately that many families have received suggestions and instruction regarding food facts and correct diet.
 There are 752 members of the Red Cross Life-Saving Corps in Illinois. Each of these persons have passed the examination and is trained in methods of resuscitating victims of drowning.
 Also 84 certificates have been issued in the First Aid classes. These classes have been found of great value, not only in instructing men and women in the proper course to pursue in cases of emergency, but in the prevention of accident.
 Work of the Junior Red Cross among the 850 Auxiliaries has been carried on by its membership of 210,123 children. They have aided in promoting health programs through the schools, visited hospitals, and helped to provide comforts and entertainment for disabled soldiers, as well as unfortunate children at home and abroad.
 To aid in carrying out these many activities, and to increase the community usefulness of the local Red Cross Chapters, an opportunity will be given for renewing membership in the Red Cross during the Fifth Annual Roll Call, November 11, and continues through Thanksgiving. Every membership dollar is an investment in community welfare and in relief activities, locally, nationally and internationally.
