MEETING OF TENTH DISTRICT HELD NOV. 8

Federated Woman's Clubs Met In Rogers Park. Mrs. Pennybacker Spoke

In the 10th Congressional District of Illinois, there are 39 federated woman's clubs, the Highland Park Woman's club and the Ossoli club being among this number. Three times a year delegates from these clubs meet in general session. The most recent meeting was held Nov. 8 at the Rogers Park Woman's club.

Reports were given by the chairmen of the different standing committees and showed to what a great extent the women are having in the affairs of the present day activities.

The women of the Tenth District Federation, numbering 7,500, wield a power that is not to be regarded lightly.

The morning session was given concluding with the adoption of a resolution to forward to the conference on limitation of armaments in Washington, that the women of the Tenth District go on record as favoring the limitation of armament.

The speaker of the afternoon was Mrs. Percy Pennybacker, past president of the General Federation of Women's clubs in the United States.
As Mrs. Pennybacker came forward, splendid achievements of this petite, charming, dignified, sweet-faced woman. Her subject was "Which Closes the Door: Youth or Age?" referring to the door of love, sympathy and understanding between parent and child. She considered the modern girl from the standpoint of dress, speech and manners, deploring the present-day tendency of immodest dressing in the abbreviated skirt, thinness of apparel and low-cut bodice.

And the modern girls' speech!
From the dignified, beautiful and precise speech of her grandmother's day she has descended to the slang — yes, in some instances, to the profanity of the street boy; and when mother remonstrates, daughter is apt to reply "You're behind the times, Mother; if a girl wants to be popular and keep up with the procession, she must put plenty of 'pep' into her talk."

Mrs. Pennybacker said that "Into the hands of women is given the keeping of the ideals of the race — that men rise no higher in their speech than the ideals of women demand."

She urged mothers to make confidentes of their daughters, to turn back the Book of Life to page 19 and try to see with daughter's eyes, thereby being better able to counsel and guide, but above all, to keep the door of Love wide open. Love has saved the world once, and Love and Understanding can save it again.

MISS HELEN MAYER APPEARS IN CONCERT

Lansing Paper Tells of Interesting Musical Program by Local Young Lady

The following article appeared in the Thursday, November 10th issue of the Lansing Capitol News.

Before a large and appreciative audience of Lansing's lovers of music, Miss Helen Mayer, teacher of violin at the Lansing Conservatory of Music, presented a most unusual and artistic program, at the Plymouth Congregational church, Wednesday evening.

The splendid playing of this artist met instant and enthusiastic response from her hearers. A broad tone, flawless and of great warmth and beauty, strength and virility of interpretation and security and saneness of performance characterize Miss Mayer as a violinist. This, added to a most gracious stage presence, delighted the audience.

Mr. W. Waller Whitlock furnished capable ensemble in the Beethoven Sonata for violin and piano, as well as excellent accompaniments for the group of solos, well chosen and contrasted selections, by Tchaikowski Sarasate, Dvorak-Kreiser, Reger, and Samuel Gardner. An encore Miss Mayer played "Samoan Lullaby" by Tod Boyd, a beautiful number in double stopping and with muted tones, the richness and beauty of intonation being shown to particular advantage in this selection.

Miss Ora Larthard, cellist and Mr.
E. K. Foeter, pianist, both well known artist teachers at the Conservatory, presented, with Miss Mayer, a stirring performance of the Rubenstein Trio in G minor, thus completing in artistic perfection a program which was the equal to any artist program heard in Lansing for years.

Winter's First Warning

By J. M. APPEL

The first cold blast
From off the lake,
It makes me shiver.
Calls to mind
The empty coal bin,
The need for shoes and clothes,
The dreary, cold and workless days.
It makes me ask
About my summer's wage, Spent and dissipated,
Or saved and working

IN THE BANK:

Young man, some day — beware — An injured limb, a spell of sickness, (It may be one gray hair).
First warnings of life's winter.
Take heed and plan for shelter.
In springtime didst thou plant Good seed — and till the soil, Work hard, spend less, save more?
Then must the harvest be Your summer's wage Conserved and growing will be made for the proper supervision of the classes and the very best sneakers.

The boys between the ages of 10 and 13 inclusive will be admitted to the floor and swimming pool from 9 to 10:30 and the boys from 14 to 18

Week by Local Talent

nity Service, wishes to announce to holders of season tickets and to the general public that the second number of the community lyceum course to call it an "Italian Evening."

A most interesting concert has been arranged through the efforts of Mrs.
A. R. Jones, and Miss Ruth Ewing and will consist of numbers by the Jessie Harding, who needs no intro-

200 ATTEND REUNION AT MRS. H. E. MASON'S

Affair Saturday is Huge Success. Plan to Form Association for Annual Reunion

Two hundred former nurses, aides, doctors and patients at U. S. General hospital No. 28, Fort Sheridan, gathered at the home of Mrs. Henry Mason last Saturday afternoon for a reunion which had been planned by Miss Elizabeth Wells Robertson, Miss Barthelme, Mrs. Van Stein and Mrs.
Ruehl. The guests who came from the Speedway, the Marine, Great Lakes, Fort Sheridan, St. Luke's and Wesley hospitals arrived shortly after one o'clock and remained until after midnight. It is unnecessary to say that the affair was a great success.

Telegrams and letters were received from large numbers who were unable to attend the affair.

During the afternoon plans were made for the formation of an association, the name of which has not yet been chosen. The purpose of this association is to hold an annual "get-together." The officers can not be announced at this time, but will be in a later issue.

Some of the girls can be interested in housework by giving them a fascinating kitchen dress.
