THE MAN WHO WINS

The man who wins is the man who works—
The man who toils while the next man shirks,
The man who stands in his deep distress,
With his head held high in the deadly press—
Yes, he is the man who wins.

The man who wins is the man who knows
The value of pain and the worth of woes;
Who a lesson learns from the man who falls
And a moral finds in his mournful wails—
Yes, he is the man who wins.

The man who wins is the man who stays
In the unsought paths and the rocky ways
And, perhaps, who lingers now and then
To help some failure to rise again.
Yes, he is the man who wins.

It seems queer they don't organize a run runner's union. These fellows work more than eight hours a day—or night.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

THE GIVING SPIRIT

Many people feel that the custom of Christmas giving has been carried to a great excess, and that a vast amount of money is wasted each year on useless presents. While there is a lot of this foolish expenditure, yet a great deal of it would be put into equally senseless uses if the custom were abolished. The majority of people make useful gifts that add to the comfort and satisfaction of families and friends, and often save the recipients from spending money for the same purpose.

The people who mail their Christmas packages about four days before the holiday will as usual be picking about the delays in the mails.

Claimed the housewives should take more interest in politics. But anyway the politicians take much interest in the housewives.

In Europe the women are advertising for husbands. The girls don't do this much in this country, but they have other methods of publicity for their charms.

The powers hind poor China hand and foot, and then find fault because she can't walk.

Physicians doubt if medical beer is needed by everyone, but anyway it cures thirst.

Another sign of the prevailing unrest is the report that the Ohio river has left its bed.

The King of England wears patched shoes for comfort, ut many of us here in Highland Park wear them for other reasons.

Many people look forward eagerly to the land of Canaan, but what some of these mischievous kids need is the land of canin'.

Many people won't go to church in bad weather because they are afraid of getting their feet wet. Perhaps the real trouble is cold feet.

The diplomats should reflect that if the nations spend all their money for armament, they won't have any left for the salaries of public officials.

Some men have issued notice to their wives that they can survive even if they do not receive Christmas gifts consisting of embroidered pillow boxes, hand painted needle holders or gold mounted shaving kits.

If the speeding motorists will insist on running people down, they should take more pains to pick out persons whom the community can spare.

Bones of prehistoric people have been discovered in Arizona, but you can see the bones of a lot of living folks when the time comes to put on the evening gown.

Some of these pay roll robbers are likely to be prison roll or cemetery roll one spyrit soon.

When the price of eggs begins to go down, the hens immediately begin to lay.

The first modern battleship to cost over $5,000,000 was the British ship Inflexible, launched in 1881.
