COMMUNITY SERVICE

Notice to season ticket holders to lycium course. Instead of the program scheduled for Dec. 29, please substitute lecture by Mrs. Marx Oberndorfer on Jan. 6. Mrs. Oberndorfer will speak on "The Demoralizing Influence of Jazz." Therefore take notice that there will be no program on Dec. 29, but instead the lecture on Jan. 6, at Elm Place school.

Community Gym classes will be discontinued for two weeks during the holidays owing to the fact that the High School will be closed. The classes will reopen Saturday morning, Jan. 7, at the usual hours. The classes are free and are open to all boys of grammar school ages in the entire Deerfield-Shields township. There are at present about 100 boys taking the work.

The Americanization classes will be discontinued during Xmas week but will re-open on Tuesday evening, Jan. 3.

The Community Center will be open as usual during Xmas week, and the public is cordially invited to drop in and inspect the Center since it has been renovated.

Another play evening will be held for the boys and girls at the Center on New Year's Eve — the boys and girls will watch the old year out and the new year in. Miss Blumenfeld will have charge of the party and will prepare a number of new games to be played. There will be dancing and refreshments, and the public is invited to come and make merry with the young folks.

$225 buys a J. & C. Fischer upright piano—is just from factory—very sweet toned and beautiful instrument. Phone 773-J, or call at 384 Elm place. Easy terms if desired. Alonzo Jones. 43-pd
