

Try Our Damp Wash

WE can shield you, from the wearing, ageing influence of washday; from the annoyance of hands chafed from constant contact with boiling waters; we can relieve you of the fatigue that comes from doing the family washing.

OUR DAMP WASH SERVICE, with its modern washing methods, is especially devised to save women all the laborious work and worry of the old style washday.

We wash your clothes in numerous waters—more than any ordinary laundress can attempt—and return them to you, sweet and clean.

DEERFIELD NEWS

Mrs. Eugene Ender and Miss Clara Ender attended a luncheon and bridge party at the Webber Hotel Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Willman were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. James Dougherty of Chicago Sunday.

Ninety-seven dollars and twenty-five cents were collected in Deerfield for the Red Cross by the solicitors, Mesdames R. D. Supple, Oscar Beecham, R. E. Pettis and Alex Willman during the drive.

The garage of Dr. C. J. Davis was completely destroyed by fire Sunday morning. The fire was discovered in time to allow him to get his two automobiles out unharmed. There being such a strong wind, the homes in the neighborhood were in danger, but fortunately the Deerfield Volunteer Fire department assisted by the Highland Park Department quickly extinguished the flames.

The Gehrke family from Shermerville were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Dietz Sunday.

Mrs. Elmer Clavey will entertain the Young Matrons club at her home Wednesday afternoon.

The athletic club will give a dance in the grammar school assembly hall Saturday, February 4th. The proceeds of which will be used to purchase gymnasium equipment.

Mrs. Margaret Zinkann died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James Dougherty of Chicago, Friday afternoon, January 13th, having reached the age of 70 years. Mrs. Zinkann has been ailing for the past two years with a throat infection, which was incurable, on account of her age, and caused her death last Friday.

She made her home with Mrs. Fred Labahn of Deerfield, until October, when she went to live in Chicago with her other daughter, Mrs. Dougherty. She leaves to survive her, two daughters, Mrs. Amanda Labahn of Deerfield and Mrs. Minnie Dougherty of Chicago, two grandchildren, William and Margaret Dougherty. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. Dougherty with a Chicago minister officiating and burial in Rose Hill cemetery, with Rev. J. C. Beuscher of Deerfield officiating.

The January meeting of the Deerfield Parent-Teacher association was held Friday afternoon, Jan. 13, with Mrs. E. C. Becker, the president presiding. Mrs. R. E. Pettis, resigned as secretary and her place was filled temporarily by Mrs. George Goodman. The association was unable to elect another secretary and so it was moved to have it brought up at the next meeting. Mrs. Eugene Ender, the treasurer reported a total of $225.98 in the treasury, and was directed to pay $150.00 to Gehrke and Dietz. Mrs. Reichelt, Jr., chairman of the Hygiene committee awarded books to the following children who had made the greatest gain in the past month: Clarence Juhrend, Stephen Pfister, Arline McDermott, James McDermott, Vivian Haggi and Donald Clark. Miss Glos' room received the prize for having the most parents present. Mrs. Patterson read a paper on Co-Operation of Parents, Teachers and School Board.

A Ford delivery truck was smashed by a large car Thursday evening, on Waukegan road. The driver of the Ford was knocked unconscious and removed to the R. M. Vant home. Dr. Davis was called. The injured man gave his name as C. Hall of Wilson and was removed to his home that evening. The other car disappeared without any apparent damage.

Mrs. Rebecca Merner visited Mrs. Kline of Chicago several days of last week.

Ben Fritch of Highwood, spent Sunday with his two brothers, James and Ezra.

Peter Zahn of Chicago, a former village resident is very ill. Mr. James Fritch visited him Sunday.

Mrs. Carl T. Anderson fell down stairs and dislocated her ankle on Saturday morning. She is unable to walk on the injured foot, but has resumed her duties at the Deerfield school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Reichelt, Sr., have purchased a home in Wilmette and will move as soon as Mr. Reichelt recuperates from his illness.

The Stanger flat will be occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Plagge and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Stanger and family.

Misses Catherine Sheldon of Round Lake, and Blanche Shadle of Area, teachers in the Round Lake school, visited the Deerfield School Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Johnson (Edith Pettis) announce the birth of a daughter, Friday, Jan. 13.

Mrs. C. G. Pettis has been quite ill this past week.

Marshall Fredrick underwent a slight operation at Miss Woodman's hospital Saturday. Dr. Davis was assisted by a doctor from Glencoe.

Mr. Lewis E. Durham, cartoonist, will appear at the Presbyterian church, Sunday evening, January twenty-second at eight o'clock. He will lecture on "The Book of Hosea", the greatest love story in the Bible. There will also be music. All are invited to attend.

Deerfield Evangelical Church

At next Sunday's services, the following subjects will be taken up. In Sunday school, the study of the interesting character of Elijah will be continued. At the morning preaching service, the subject will be, "What would Jesus do in the church?"

The Christian Endeavor Society will be led by Mr. Harold Vant, with the subject, "Do Christian Principles apply to Buying and Selling?" At the evening preaching service, the topic, "The Uniqueness of Jesus the Man" will be taken up. Special music by the orchestra.

The purpose of our weekly meetings on Wednesday night is to give an opportunity for participation in prayer and worship.

The young people's club of the Sunday school will meet Thursday night at the home of Miss Laurel Stryker. The choir will meet for practice Friday evening at 7:45 p. m.

An important convention of evangelical laymen from the Chicago district meets next Tuesday night, January 24th at the Central Y. M. C. A. in Chicago at 6:30 p. m. The purpose of this meeting is to perfect a permanent organization. Three delegates have been appointed from this church and others are welcome to attend.

Switzerland is electrifying her railways, to save importing coal. The silkworm moth has been cultivated for more than 4,000 years. Traces of many diseases still prevalent have been found in mummies 3000 years old.

Unemployment is one of the greatest factors in bringing about diseases of the mind.

Eggs, found in the trunk of a large elm while being cut into planks, are estimated to have been lying there about a century.
