LAKE COUNTY MAN
WROTE FAMOUS SONG

Sanford Filmore Bennett, Author of "The Sweet Bye and Bye" Known in Waukegan

Poetry and song writing had its drawbacks in the early days, said Sanford Filmore Bennett, pioneer of Lake county, and educated at the Waukegan Academy, author of "The Sweet Bye and Bye". He was greatly pleased whenever an editor even published his verse, for most of which he never was paid a cent.

Mr. Bennett, who was born in Eden, N. Y., in 1836 was a close friend of William L. Farmer, assistant postmaster of Waukegan, and in letters written to the Waukegan man several years before his death, which occurred at Richmond, Ill., June 12, 1898, frequently referred to his lack of funds.

"The Pioneers" a remarkable poem of great length written by him, centers around Lake and McHenry life in the early days, when the log cabin was a familiar sight. Mr. Farmer has an autographed copy of this poem published in book form many years ago.

Lewis O. Brockway, recorder of deeds and circuit clerk of Lake county, heard "The Sweet Bye and Bye" sung for the first time in public.

A Sunday school picnic was given on the lawn of the Bennett home in the late sixties and at that time it was announced that Jay Bennett, a brother and his wife would sing "Santy's" new song and that had never been sung in public. In those early days Mr. Brockway recalls, Lake and McHenry counties appeared like one immense lawn, in summertime, thousands of cattle, and other livestock keeping the grass cropped everywhere, with the exception of the sloughs, where it was too tough. One could gather enough prairie chicken eggs any time for breakfast in the spring of the year.

Mr. Bennett's early efforts were published in the Waukegan Gazette.

Mr. Bennett settled in Elkhorn, Wis., in 1860 and became editor of "The Independent". Resigning this place he entered the 40th Wisconsin Volunteers and served with them throughout the war. In 1867 he aided J. P. Webster, the composer, in preparing "The Signet Ring," a Sunday school hymn book to which he contributed about 100 poems. The "Sweet Bye and Bye" was one of the first of these.

CARPENTER KILLED IN AUTO SMASHUP

Machine Turns Turtle at Dangerous Crossing and Huris Occupants Against Pole

Joseph Garwood, aged 55, of Grayslake, is dead, and Burr Smith of Grayslake is in the Wooster Lake sanitarium in a critical condition, his skull fractured, and perhaps internally injured, as the result of an auto accident at Welsh's crossing, on the Fox Lake road, at 4 o'clock last Saturday afternoon.

Smith and Garwood were returning to their home in Grayslake, after their day's work as carpenters. As they turned the corner at Welsh's crossing, the Ford in which they were riding turned turtle, hurling the men against a telephone pole near the edge of the road. Garwood died instantly, but Smith was rushed to the Wooster Lake sanitarium immediately, in a car that was passing almost at the time of the accident.

The corner where the fatal crash occurred has been the scene of many serious accidents. It is the place where Dr. Reegan was killed about six years ago. The Fox Lake road at this point goes down a steep hill, and immediately at the bottom is a sharp turn. The slippery condition of the roads Saturday is thought to have been responsible for the accident.

"THE CLAW" COMING
TO PRINCESS, FEB. 5

Lionel Barrymore in "The Claw" which comes to the Princess Theatre, Chicago, starting Sunday, February 5th, scored a real hit in New York City and Boston. Those cities were supposed to like drama sugar-coated. But Henri Bernstein's play is acrid, even bitter. "The Claw" strikes in to the bone. It is cynical, savage, cruel. It tells the story of the infatuation of a famous man for an intriguing chit of a girl, of how she wheedles and bleeds him, of his debasement and his eventual destruction. E. F. Harkins in the Boston Advertiser says: "It is one of the most powerful roles in modern drama. The American stage has seen nothing like it since Mansfield was blazing round the country in 'Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde' and 'The Parisian Romance'."
