OAK TERRACE SCHOOL

Gladys Glader, editor. The children of the different grades have been making some interesting skating posters. Miss Florence Carolan, a former teacher, was a visitor Monday, Feb. 13.

The first grade children decorated their room last week with the things which they have made during their art period.

Miss Marie O'Connor was a visitor at the school, Monday.

There will be a P. T. A. meeting on Thursday, Feb. 16, at 2:30 p. m. A picture will be presented to the room that is credited with bringing the most mothers.

The Misses Carolan, Keough and Augustine, teachers of this school, attended a meeting at the Lincoln avenue school to hear a lecture given by Miss Floria Cooke, principal of the Francis Parker school in Chicago.

The Misses Christine and Deborah McDonald, Chicago teachers, were visitors of this school Monday.

The Parent-Teacher association will present "School Room Komicalities" and "The Neighbor," two clever sketches, Friday evening, February 24, at the Oak Terrace school. The public is invited to attend. The evening will be a most delightful one and well worth the very small cost of admission.

FATHERS' AND SONS' DINNER A SUCCESS

these were disposed of, and while waiters were bringing on the next course, Mr. Coover's orchestra struck up and sang:

"To Deerfield High School
 Lift we now our voices;
 To all the loyal sons
 In whom she rejoices;
 See how proud victory
 O'er her banner poises
 Deerfield forevermore!"

Then the tune changed to "When Johnnie Comes Marching Home" and everybody sat down and sang this:

"Who earns the necessary cash?
 It's Dad, it's Dad,
 Who loads our plates with good old hash!"

It's Dad, it's Dad,
 Who looks our naughtiness thru and thru,
 But praises everything good we do!
 It's Dad, Dad, Dad, Dad!
 Here's to our good old Dad!

"However long and hard the day,
 It's Dad, it's Dad,
 Who likes to come and see us play!
 It's Dad, it's Dad,
 He was a boy himself—don't you ever forget,
 He can show a few tricks to the youngsters yet!
 It's Dad, Dad, Dad, Dad!
 Here's to our good old Dad!"

Then the hearty songsters went after their pie a la mode, coffee, nuts and candies; and this part of the entertainment ended. Mr. Sandwick introduced Mayor S. M. Hastings to the fathers and sons as the "father of the city," and the master of ceremonies.

The mayor, as usual, was at his best. With much warmth of manner and many a joke he introduced the speakers. Walter Simmonds in "Our Fathers" told what boys of the high school owe to their fathers and how best they may show their appreciation.

Robert Rogers spoke on Lincoln as a father. He gave a vivid description of Tad's breaking into a cabinet meeting and how the great president received him.

The boys' glee club sang. There was a big chorus of voices in the club with Bench, Goldring, Nichols, Botker, Foster, Keagle, Wright, Gorty and Walter Simmonds as tenors, and Graham Keagle, Supple, Proctor, Rogers, H. Simms, Seymour, Foley, Bulgrin, Greene and Roeder as basses.

Mr. Ernest Palmer of Evanston, leader of the Chicago four-minute speakers during the war, and chairman of the entertainment committee of the University club, was to have been the chief entertainer; but a bad case of bronchitis kept him in bed.

One of the school's graduates, that prince of singers and story tellers, Rollin Pease, of the Northwestern University School of Music, took Mr. Palmer's place. The school was in luck to get him for he is in demand from coast to coast, and recently he has been singing for the radio. He did the Invictus, Danny Dever and several negro spirituals in his matchless way, and responded to a final encore with the "Big Black Bear" to which the fathers and sons contributed a monstrous "Woof!" from time to time at his suggestion.

Meanwhile a league game, the final round in basketball, had been scheduled with J. Sterling Morton high school, and the lightweights were already warming up for the fray. The diners adjourned without ceremony and hurried to the gym where they saw the Deerfield lads, Keagle, Johnson, Martin, Albert Scholz, Kyalla and Arnold Scholz, win an easy victory for the Blue and White. So ended the boys and fathers annual dinner in the tenth year after the custom was initiated. The annual dinner was discontinued for a time in answer to the cry, "Save Food, for Food Will Win the War!"

GAS RATE CUT IS DUE MARCH FIRST

Company Makes Voluntary Reduction in Anticipation of Lower Operating Costs

The North Shore Gas company will put into effect in the territory served by it, on March 1, 1922, the following rate schedule today filed with the Illinois Commerce Commission, subject to the approval of the commission. It is a voluntary rate reduction, and conforming to anticipated reductions in costs during the coming year, although the actual earnings of the company for the year 1921 have not justified such action.

"In making this reduction, the company does not seek to recoup for its heavy operating deficits for the four years prior to 1921," said one of the officials of the company. "It is anxious to preserve the good will of its customers, and it is therefore throwing off in advance the amount by which it hopes to exceed, for the year 1922, the net earnings allowed it by the Illinois Commerce Commission."

Schedule of Gas Rates Effective March 1, 1922

| Per M. Cu. Ft. | Gross | Net |
|--|--------|------|
| First 400 cu. ft. or less consumed per month | $.60 | |
| Next 2,000 cu. ft. or less consumed per month | 1.55 | 1.45 |
| Next 3,000 cu. ft. or less consumed per month | 1.50 | 1.40 |
| Next 5,000 cu. ft. or less consumed per month | 1.45 | 1.35 |
| Next 10,000 cu. ft. or less consumed per month | 1.40 | 1.30 |
| Next 10,000 cu. ft. or less consumed per month | 1.35 | 1.25 |
| Over 30,400 cu. ft. or less consumed per month | 1.25 | 1.15 |

For all gas used through prepayment meters $1.50

Prompt Payment Discount

The difference between the gross and net rates shall constitute a prompt payment discount which shall apply when bills are paid within ten days after date.

Minimum Bill

The company will render minimum monthly bills and collect 60c per meter per month from all consumers who use less than four hundred cubic feet of gas in the monthly period, as measured on regular meters.
