E. MORGAN, POULTRYMAN, ISSUES CATALOGUE

Article in Vashon Island Paper of February 17, Describes Advertising Booklet

The following article was clipped from the February 17 issue of the Vashon Island News-Record. Mr. E. Morgan, a former resident of Highland Park, is engaged in the poultry business at Vashon Island, Wash.

"We have delivered this week to E. Morgan, proprietor of the Highland Park Poultry Ranch, as fine a poultry catalogue as we have ever seen issued. It is eight pages, 9x12, printed in two colors, from ink blended particularly for this order by the Geo. Russell Reed company, printed on fine lustrous enamel paper, and profusely illustrated with halftones, made from actual photographs some of which were taken by Norman Edison of Burton. The reading matter was prepared by Mr. Morgan himself and sets out among other things what free range will accomplish. A recent editorial from the pen of Mr. Curtis of the R. P. J. is quoted in part in this catalogue, in which the Highland Park Poultry Ranch of Mr. Mor-

DEERFIELD HIGHWAY PLANS ARE READY

All plans for Route No. 21 which is the Wheeling-Antioch road improvement, are completed and have been received in Springfield, and are ready for bids, according to word received today by Co. Supt. Chas. E. Russell from G. N. Lamb district engineer. The project now awaits only the right-of-way dedication from the property owners and Stanley Foote of Vernon township has obtained these in practically every instance except where the owners are away and no trouble is anticipated in obtaining the rest.

Supt. Russell also has plans for 3 sections of road in Springfield awaiting approval of the district engineer. These are for the Deerfield-Highland Park, Highwood, Half Day and Lake Zurich-Wauconda roads.
