STATE'S ATTORNEY'S HOME TO BE GUARDED

BOARD PROTECTS SMITH

Will Prevent Recurrence of Bombing; Other Brief
Items of Lake County News

State's Attorney A. V. Smith's home in Waukegan, will be guarded by men from either the police department or the sheriff's office, it was decided last week by members of the board of supervisors.

The state's attorney said that although there have been no further attempts to harm him since the bombing of his home last summer, his work against booze violators is making enemies among the foreign population of the county, and it is his desire that he be protected.

Harriet, the 7-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Kudrevich, of 138 Tenth street, Waukegan, met instant death Wednesday afternoon of last week, when she was struck by an auto driven by Martin Svete of 1102 Prescott street, at the corner of Tenth and Prescott streets.

The seven year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Costiss, residing on North avenue, Waukegan, near the new golf grounds was struck by an automobile driven by G. W. Wedekind, 2320 Rinaldale avenue, Zion, last week and received a fracture of his right leg, near the ankle. Wedekind got out of his automobile, knelt beside the boy and said: "Let us pray." He then took the boy to his home.

It is expected that work of paving Sheridan road in Waukegan, between Glen Flora avenue and the north city limits will begin some time in May and preparations are being made by the city council to call for bids on this job by May 1.

The proposed improvement consists of a half mile stretch that has been in a very rough condition for several years. It is to be of brick construction.

The final hearing on this matter will come up in the county court on March 22nd.

Wilbur Glenn Voliva is at last scheduled to appear in the Lake county circuit court to stand trial on charges of criminal libel contained in grand jury indictments returned several years ago, and finally carried to the present term of court by Col. A. V. Smith.

Voliva is charged with publishing damaging articles in his official religious organ, The Theocrat, and also with having published cartoons of a libelous nature against the Rev. Thomas H. Nelson, pastor of the Grace Missionary church, in Zion.

Ninety acres of lake front property in Waukegan, located east of the tannery, has been sold for $90,000, or $1,000 an acre, it was rumored last week, the tract being purchased by a Chicago man.

CHEMIST'S BILL

Supervisors Wrangle Over Paying Epstein $2,065 for Three Weeks' Work

The board of supervisors "kicked like a steer" last week at paying for Lake county's dry campaign.

The controversy, which grew red hot, developed when Ralph K. Epstein, of Chicago, an expert chemist, demanded final settlement of his bill for $2,065 which has been hanging fire for practically a year.

The fact that the bill was for services rendered in the limited period of about three weeks, stirred up the indignation of a faction on the board who vigorously declared themselves against paying such princely sum out of the taxpayers' pockets for the enforcement of prohibition.

At a recent meeting the board considered the bill and decided that Epstein would be well paid for his dry activities if he received a check for $1,000. The amount was authorized and forwarded to Epstein who accepted it under protest.

Consequently he submitted a bill for the remainder of his fee, $1,065, and as a compromise with the committee handling the matter, he agreed to settle for $700.

Think Chemist Overpaid
The principal contention of the supervisors was that Lake county was paying too high salaries for its dry campaign. A lengthy argument ensued in which it was agreed that State's Attorney A. V. Smith had in reality contracted for the chemist's services, but that the board had a right to protest if it felt that the bill was too high.

"Do you think the regular dry squad members who get $10 a day are overpaid? Well if you don't then Epstein earned $1,000," said Supervisor W. O. Samson.

After a motion had been made and seconded to pay the compromise of $700, the board was required to stand a roll call on another motion to lay it over until the June meeting, and then to table it. Both motions were defeated by a close count.

Jury Holds Fruit Company Not Responsible for Smashup
Near Sacred Heart

Deliberating just an hour last Saturday the merits of the evidence submitted in the case of Mrs. Mary Smith of Racine vs the Great Lakes Fruit Co., the jury returned a verdict of "not guilty" and Mrs. Smith returned to Racine without the $25,000 judgment she sued for.

Mrs. Smith was a passenger on the limited train of the Chicago, North Shore & Milwaukee electric railroad that was wrecked in the triangle accident at the Sacred Heart crossing over a year ago.

The limited train in which Mrs. Smith was riding was going north when a truck belonging to the Great Lakes Fruit company and an auto driven by Bornhild Dettman of Milwaukee, collided and the auto was thrown onto the tracks in the path of the on-rushing train. The train was derailed and several of the passengers were injured. Mrs. Smith, it is said, is still suffering from injuries received, she charged and brought suit for $25,000 damages.

Attorney Potter, representing the fruit company, held that the railroad was at fault because the scene of the accident, while in the township, is between acre grounds, and the state law requires a fence on both sides of a railroad through acre grounds. There is no fence at this place, and further, the lights of the train were not dimmed when the train approached the passing autos. Dettman is claimed to have been blinded by the train lights, and the driver of the fruit truck in turn claims he was blinded by the lights on Dettman's car.

The jury held that the Great Lakes Fruit company was not responsible for the accident, and switched the blame of the smashup to the North Shore railway and to Dettman. It is understood that Mrs. Smith will start a new case for damages and name the North Shore railroad as defendant.

There are several cases pending in the circuit court as a result of the triangle accident.

No Definite Information Yet Received at Naval Station, Says Commander

According to a press dispatch from Washington that quotes Secretary of the Navy Charles Denby in a discussion before the naval house committee, the navy expects to train 12,000 men at Goat Island and Sault-ago and a smaller number at the Great Lakes Naval Training station.

Commander S. B. McKinney of Great Lakes states that he has not heard from the government in an official way on the matter of increased forces, and that he is uncertain where the navy will get that number of sailors to train at the stations. There are about 1,5000 enlisted men at the Lakes now who are attending the training school there, but they are not training any recruits, according to him.

He doubted that the men would be recruited, or that they could come from any other station, as there are but three stations in the country now. He believes that it must be the plan of the Navy Department to train that number, but that there is nothing certain on the matter at present. He admitted that there might be a possibility of more men being sent to the Lakes as the Navy Department has been active making changes of late.

Nothing definite can be learned by the officers at Great Lakes until the orders come officially from the Navy Department.
