Epworth League, 6:45 p. m.
Evening sermon or lecture, 8:00 p. m.

Above is listed our regular Sunday services. Add to these that every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock occurs the mid-week service and you have a complete list of the stated events of our church. You are invited to all of these.

Next Sunday morning our people are to have a rare treat, Mrs. W. B. Norton, who with her husband, the religious editor of the Chicago Tribune, had the privilege of circling the globe last year, is to be our speaker. She brings a message of value and importance. She is a woman of great talent, and will give us a glimpse of world conditions that will be illuminating and eloquent. The service is under the auspices of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society, and all members and friends of this organization are requested to bring their annual thank offering.

Last Sunday was another red letter day at Grace M. E. church. The attendance at the celebration of Mother's day in the morning was quite large, and the recipients of the roses were most happy, and there were a large number of them. The music by the vested choir was greatly appreciated. Mrs. Pease is giving this group of boys and girls a great deal of careful attention, and the results are worth while.

In the evening the Epworth League anniversary was well attended. The reports of the retiring officers were interesting and complete, the installation service was impressive, and the new cabinet faces a new year with hope and enthusiasm. They have large plans for activities that will mean much to the young people of our community.

Coming Events: Memorial Sunday, May 25; Children's day, June 11; Patriotic Pageant, July 2. Remember that there is always something doing at "the little church on the corner."

The Book of Job, always interesting, and full of surprising incidents, is under consideration at the Wednesday evening services. You ought to come.
