"THE FOUR HORSEMEN OF THE APOCALYPSE"
When you see Mr. Valentino in this screen adaptation of the world famous novel of Vincente Blasco Ibañez by Jund Mathis and notice his finished acting, the sure swagger of the safe scenes laid in the Argentine, the stipoli of his manner in interpreting the student and the lover in Paris, it will be your unquestionable opinion that here is a man inflicted in theatrical ways at a child. Don't miss this wonderful masterpiece.

REAL ESTATE DEALS IN HIGHLAND PARK

The following transfers of real estate in Highland Park and vicinity were reported last week through the office of the county recorder:

Wm. H. Wixon and wife bought the Charles J. Block lots on east side Rice St., south of Roger William avenue for indicated $4,000.

Fay Perring bought a three-cornered lot with 284 feet frontage on west side Lincoln avenue, just north of Cedar avenue from Wm. D. Morey for indicated $5,000.

Victor W. Nelson bought the Harris and Jackson property on east side street just north of Ravine avenue, east of Linden avenue for indicated $23,500 and gave back trust deed for $13,500.

Florence H. Boardman bought 125 feet frontage on east side Linden avenue just north of Cedar avenue from Wm. D. Morey for indicated $4,500.

Herman Black bought 220 feet frontage on north side Wade street between Forest and Beech avenues from O. C. Thomson for indicated $4,500.

IN DEERFIELD VILLAGE—The trustees of Bethlehem Evangelical church of Deerfield bought three lots in Von Laide subdivision on north side Deerfield avenue east of Lincoln avenue for $3,000.

In three years ending 1920, records show 3,636 lives were lost and 10,644 people were injured at grade crossings in the United States.

The people who don't advertise frequently complain that they do not see the business revival at which other folks are rejoicing.

Another sign of progress in this country is the greatly increased number of automobile accidents.

Mount Vernon Curtain Materials

Consider how little a few yards of Mount Vernon Curtain Material cost, and how much they contribute towards improving the home, making it cozy and attractive. There is so little sewing—just a hem or two, and the curtain is already to put up. With so small an expenditure, there is nothing that contributes so largely to the charm of a well furnished house as good-looking curtains.
