GRACE M. E. CHURCH

Those Vesper services from 7 to 8 every Sunday evening are very interesting and really worth while. Last Sunday evening Mr. R. E. Winter led in a series of discussions that were quite inspiring. Next Sunday evening the pastor will have charge. "Your Other Self" will be the theme of the sermon next Sunday morning. Remember that our morning service begins at eleven o'clock. Come and bring your friends.

The Children's day service was very beautiful. All who were on the program acquitted themselves with much credit. Especially impressive was the christening service. The beautiful babies were baptized.

Our Sunday School offers opportunity for an hour of song and study after the methods that have meant so much to all who enjoyed the old-time Sunday School. Parents will do wisely by sending their children to the "little church on the corner."

Next Tuesday morning at 9:30 our vacation school will begin. All children are welcome. Even the little people who are of kindergarten age. Entertainment, instruction, pictures, plays, songs and occasional refreshments are on the program. A competent corps of teachers is being assembled, and we hope for a series of days of rare pleasure and profit. We are hoping to have a moving picture machine for use on several days, and the outlook is good. The term will last for three weeks, and perhaps longer. Send the children. Parents will be welcome, especially mothers with small babies. There will be help to take care of all. Whether members of our congregation or not, all are welcome.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

The Blue Birds will meet at 9 o'clock and the Campfire Girls at 10 o'clock.

Next Sunday morning, the Bible school will begin at 9:30.

The Rev. Frank Pitt will preach at the 11 o'clock service.

Mrs. Arthur Byfield will sing.

The Young People's Society will meet next Sunday evening at 7 o'clock for supper in the parish house. Ice cream will be provided; each one is to bring a contribution of food.

The prayer meeting will be held at 8 o'clock next Wednesday night.

The following children were christened at the Sunday morning service on Children's day: Margaret Clara Carlson and Florence Marianna Carlson, Donald Chatterton Davidson and Mary Johnston Davidson, Mona Mary Elizabeth Flynn, James Melville Flynn and Robert Kerr Flynn, Edward Drew Gourley, Jr., Harlow Don Holabird and Robert William Nichols.

The doughboys don't seem to think their nickname is appropriate until they get some more dough.

It is claimed that education is failing to teach people how to think, and the many bonehead plays in baseball seem to confirm that theory.

At this time of the year teacher may be able to keep the kid's eyes looking at his book, but she can't keep his mind thinking about it.
