ORIGINAL ESSAYS AT LODGE MEETING

Royal Arcanum Members Compete for Prizes in Writing Contest

The regular meeting of Highland Park Council No. 1026, R. A., was held Monday, June 12.

Essays were prepared and read at the meeting on the subject—"Why the Royal Arcanum is the best fraternal society and why you should belong." William Guyot won first prize and Dr. Lamphere and E. C. Ohnrad divided second prize for best essays.

E. M. Laing, the lodge's poet-laureate, wrote a poem on this subject that met with great favor. It follows:

The Royal Arcanum
Who here the question asked
Why should he a member be?
Of this Order and be classed
A brother, listen and you'll see.
When youth leaves its moorings to pass
To manhood's older class,
And leave behind the playtime hour,
To face the climb of life's high tower.
There comes a burden he to bear.
A responsibility, a care;
And rightful too that it should rest
Upon him that can stand the test.
In youth it is time to prepare,
And build your strength that you
Must share
With the dear ones, the young, the old.
All the cherished of your fold.
Tis not the needs of day by day,
Alone that's your duty to pay,
For there comes may chance the time
When you may slip on your high
Climb.
Have you then prepared for your
Fold,
When your lips are dumb and cold?
Or shall they shift for themselves,
And be scattered like wind does
Leaves?
Could you in spirit stand erect,
While dear ones suffer your neglect?
How could you then yourself console,
While others paid the costly toll?
Come you then and hearken to our
Call,
While we lead you right one and all.
Where charity, faith and hope,
Will truly come within your scope.
Then be a Royal Brother true,
That just credit may come to you
From the Dear Ones you leave behind,
An epitaph of truest kind.
Yes there may be those that will
Say,
Why should I divide my earned
Pay?
For another to take my place,
When I have finished my race.
To them that are so dumb and
Dumb,
I have but little time to waste
My hope my prayer will ever be
A better man in your place to see.
Come today friend and tarry not
With Royal brothers cast your lot.
A GUIDE, the door is opened wide,
A brother ever at your side.
Edw. M. Laing
