"FAIRY WOODS" PAGEANT PRESENTED AGAIN MON.

Second Production Given on J. H. Dingle Lawn is Most Successful

The Y. W. C. A. Pageant—Fairy Wood—was given Monday evening on the spacious lawn of the home of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Dingle, 515 So. Sheridan Road, amid such beautiful surroundings that the whole setting seemed like fairy land. The background of foliage trees and vines enhanced the rainbow-hued costumes of those taking part and brought out the color scheme admirably. Over all was the soft glow of the electric lights that dazzled and fascinated as one after another of the participants appeared, each with her own bit of individuality.

The opening number was a professional of the entire cast of over seventy girls led by two little tots, Mary Turriff and Marion Moon, dressed as flower fairies. The move in and out of the shrubbery, making a very effective scene in the soft evening twilight, the delicate colors of all the flower costumes lending beauty to the ever changing scene.

To specialize perhaps would be unfair, as each one did their part as well. The Pageant proper, representing a dream of a little boy and girl, was especially will given. King Peony and Queen Rose, seated on a lofty throne surrounded by their daughters Violet and Lily, received the homage of all the flower fairies who came to court. Madame Tulip, Prince Butterfly, Sir Firefly, Bumble Bee and Clover and the dear little buttercups, cowslips and jonquil.

In the second part of the program the babies came in for a great deal of admiration, each dainty little Miss being dressed in crepe paper to represent a flower. The kewpies and naughty snowball followed close in the popular fancy. The butterfly, gypsy, grandma, coquette, garland and basket dances each showed a varied type in their dainty presentation and won generous applause.

The older girls showed grace and individual talent in their dances, coupled with a charm that lingered after the dancer had sought her leafy bower.

The Fountain, Scarf, Flame, Powder Puff and Tarantelle were given by the senior classes.

The third feature of the evening's entertainment were the musical numbers given by the Harmonist Trio, composed of nine popular singers among Highland Park ladies. Their sweet voices floated on the evening air as they sang one after another of their beautiful selections.

Those in charge of the entertainment as a whole appreciate the assistance that was given by each and every one in the production. By being able to present so varied an entertainment, the combination proved harmonious and beautiful and suited to the various tastes of the appreciative audience.

of entertainment will go on, are Antioch, Area, Libertyville, Lake Villa, Lake Zurich, Grayslake, Wauconda, Barrington and Deerfield as well as the lake shore towns, ending in one grand round up in Waukegan on a Thursday in the month of August.

PIONEER RESIDENT OF DEERFIELD DIES

Mr. John Selig, one of Deerfield's oldest residents, passed away Monday morning June 12, at two-fifteen o'clock. He was seventy-three years old, being born Nov. 6, 1849, at Epshelm, Alsace, France. At the age of five years Mr. Selig was brought to America by his parents who settled in Deerfield where he has resided practically all of his life. March 19, 1878 he was married to Miss Lydia Schlieber.

Mr. Selig leaves to survive him his wife and one son, Edwin, three brothers, two sisters, one grandchild and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon June 14 from his home, Rev. M. I. Thomas officiating.

To know John Selig was to love him. He was a man of quiet spirit, deep faith and a genial disposition. The heart sympathy of scores of friends go out to the widow and son in their bereavement.

EASTERN STAR YOUNG PEOPLE EXEMPLIFY WORK

Members of Junior Star Club Take Charge of Initiation Last Evening

Last evening was Young People's night at Campbell Chapter, O. E. S., and the work was exemplified in a most beautiful and impressive manner. The great number of the officers who took part were members of the Junior Star club. Four candidates were initiated. The acting officers of the evening were: Florence Warner, worthy matron; Earl Graham, worthy patron; Helen Abercromby, associate matron; Grace Sleeman, Sec.; Helen Burback, Treas.; Lillian Graham, conductress; Alice Turriff, A. Cond.; Emma Burridge, marshal; Emma Nichols, chaplain; Caroline Winters, organist; Gertrude Gooseman, soloist; Margaret Burridge, Ada; Iva Mead, Ruth; Anna Edwards, Esther; Amy Wilson, Martha; Esther Swanson, Electa; Natalie Edstrand, warder; Andrew Yowell, sentinel. Many who attended the star said that this was one of the most delightful meetings they have ever witnessed.

Much credit is due those who took part in the affair, and to those officers who assisted in preparing the acting officers for the meeting.

The attendance was unusually large. It is hoped that as large an attendance will be on hand at Grand Matron's night, July 19.

PLAN MEETINGS TO BOOST THE FAIR

Directors To Stage Series of Interesting Sessions Throughout Lake County

A new, novel and interesting itinerary of meetings of directors and officers—and of course all friends of the Lake County Fair—has been planned. They are to meet in the several communities of Lake county during the next two months. The first party will be staged at Ivanhoe on Tuesday evening, June 27, the second will be held at Half Day, Dancing and big suppers will be on the bill of entertainment and many surprises await everyone just around the corner from everywhere. Other towns already "lined up" for Fair Booster meetings where the bands will play, the directors and officers will hold public meetings and plenty

NEW FORD SMASHED SATURDAY MORNING

Charles Williams' Car and Cadillac Meet at Green Bay Intersection

A new Ford car, belonging to Charles Williams, whose son, Arthur Williams, was killed in the Clavey accident, was smashed last Saturday morning when it was struck by a Cadillac car at the corner of Deerfield avenue and Green Bay road. The Ford was driven by Herbert Williams, a son, and was on Deerfield avenue approaching Green Bay. The youth was shaken up, but was not seriously injured. The Cadillac, driven by "Red" Proctor, high school football star, escaped with little damage.

29, at 3:15 promptly. All children under 12 years will be admitted without charge. The first half of the opening program will be given by the Chicago Symphony under the direction of Mr. Jacques Gordon. The orchestral numbers given on the first Thursday will not be included in the Music Memory contest which will be given at Ravinia later in the season. All other numbers on the following programs will be included in the contest which will be one of the most unique as well as musically helpful features ever given on the Thursday afternoon programs.

The last half of the program on June 29 will be given over to the delightful folk dances under the direction of John Dewar, assisted by Norman Dewar, the Bagpiper. The folk dances of the different nations given below:

Scotch—Highland Fling, Reel, O'Tullah, Saeon Trews.
Irish—Irish Jig, Irish Reel, Irish Waltz Clog.
English—Sailor's Hornpipe, Manchester Hornpipe.
American—International Dance, Swanee River Clog.

The Ravinia club asks that the ticket sale still be carried on. Many of the towns have not been fully canvassed as new summer residents are pouring in and though the com-mittes have worked splendidly it is almost impossible to solicit everybody. Call up your nearest chairman and let her know if your subscription has not been asked for and if you are a new subscriber the committee will appreciate it if you do the same.

The Ravinia Club.

MRS. GUS OSTRAND DIED IN HIGHWOOD

Had Lived in That City for Seventeen Years; Funeral Held Yesterday

Mrs. Gus Ostrand, 39, a resident of Highwood for 17 years, died at her home in Burchell avenue, Monday. She had been ill for about two weeks.

She is survived by a husband and five children. A brother lives in Detroit. She was born in Sweden, and lived there during her childhood.

Services were held yesterday at the Swedish Lutheran church in Highwood and interment was in the Fort Sheridan cemetery.

GOURLEY TO HAVE ART SCHOOL HERE

Children of this city who have a leaning toward art, and who want to spend an intensely interesting and at the same time profitable summer will be afforded that opportunity when a new art school, under the direction of Edward Drew Gourley, opens this summer. Classes will be held from 2:30 to 4:30 each week day afternoon during July and August.

The Elm Place school, at which the children will meet for instruction, is most appropriate with its natural setting of beauty on the ravine, where doubtless the classes will gather to sketch and paint out of doors.
