

WHAT CAUSES THAT elusive squeak?
From whence cometh the hidden rattle that yieldeth not to lubrication? These are questions that the average car owner is not prepared to solve.

Still the squeaks and rattles endure. Nothing is so disquieting. Nothing takes so much out of the pleasure of motoring, or is more embarrassing to the car owner.

Rattles and squeaks are not always due to incorrect or insufficient lubrication. Often the trouble is mechanical and requires the attention of an expert mechanic.

If you have squeaks or rattles that you can't find, bring the car to us. We have made a study of such things and can help you.

Motor repairing, too. And vulcanizing, and a full line of really good accessories.

At five-thirty o'clock, Saturday afternoon, June 24th, Miss Ardella Huehl, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Huehl, became the bride of Mr. George Sampson of Chicago, in the presence of an assembly of relatives and friends at the St. Pauls Evangelical church. Rev. J. Buescher read the service. Following the ceremony there was a reception at the residence of the bride's parents for the immediate families. Palms, ferns, bells and streamers were used in profusion to decorate the home and church.

When the streamer which was attached to the large bell was pulled a shower of rice fell upon the newly weds. The bride wore a gown of cream colored net with trimmings of lace and silver ribbon, and wore silver slippers. The wax orange blossoms which held the tulle veil had been worn by the bride's mother. The bride carried a shower bouquet of silvery white La France roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Esther Huehl, a sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor and wore a frock of pink silk canton crepe and carried a bouquet of pink American beauty roses. Miss Eleanor Weber of Cincinnati, the bridesmaid, wore lavender embroidered organdy and carried a bouquet of Marechal roses.

Mr. Peter Van Derub of Chicago acted as best man. The younger sister of the bride, Barbara, played Lohengrin's bridal chorus. Immediately before the ceremony, Miss Florence Linder, a very intimate friend of the bride, sang "A Perfect Day". Mr. Virgie Selig was usher.
