FURNISHED HOUSE WANTED FOR THE WINTER

Possession desired any time between first of September and 20th of October at the convenience of the owner. Occupancy can run to first of May or to 15th of June 1923. Location preferred northeast Highland Park, convenient walking distance to Elm Place School for two little girls. Do not want a "showy" home at an excessive rental. Requirements—minimum of four bedrooms, not to exceed six bedrooms. Owner could store away any furnishings of a particularly valuable character likely to be damaged in routine occupancy by an average American gentile family. Rental can be discounted for entire period if this would be thought desirable. In any event the writer's financial responsibility can be easily established.

I INTEND TO BUY OR BUILD

Optionally, I am in the market for a real bargain in a fairly modern home on a good street and in an established neighborhood in northeast Highland Park, a house that can be inspected and valued by disinterested architect, who is thoroughly familiar with Highland Park values, where the owner knows that the war is over and that new houses are being built for considerably less money than older places have been offered at during the shortage period.

Address: W. M. C. F., P. O. Box 371, Chicago, Ill.

NICK KLUFCTOS

Proprietor

It is denied that Congress has done nothing to settle the strikes, as it has put out some very excellent speeches.

A good many people who do not usually approve of "stick", think the government should use the big stick in dealing with the strike.

A considerable portion of the American public seems disposed to change the national motto from "In God we trust" to "Let George do it."

A good many of the former bandits seem to have gone into the business of entertaining the summer tourists.
