JESSE L. LASKY PRESENTS

"The Old Homestead"

WITH THEODORE ROBERTS
GEORGE FAWCETT T. ROY BARNES
HARRISON FORD FRITZI RIDGWAY

The greatest of all emotion-dramas—the play that has drawn laughs and tears from a million American hearts—at last given a production worthy of its story.

With the screen's greatest character actor, Theodore Roberts, in the role he was born for, "Uncle Josh."

A story made of the sorrows and joys of plain folks and a great love that weathered adversity. Reaching its climax in a mighty cyclone scene that dwarfs any storm ever shown on the screen before. For your heart's sake, come!

Adapted from Denman Thompson's famous play by Perley Poore Sheehan and Frank Woods. Scenario by Julien Josephson

Thursday and Friday Nov. 2 and 3

Richard Barthelmess in "THE BOND BOY"

From first to last—as powerful as "Tol'able David" WHAT A PICTURE!

The finest Barthelmess has given. The story of a boy who passed through slavery for his mother—and to the shadow of the gallows to save a woman. George W. Ogden's famous story, bigger still in motion pictures. An escape and bloodhound chase as exciting as the screen can give. Directed by Henry King, who directed "Tol'able David" and "Sonny."

Every American Legion Post Avails Coming of "Skin Deep"
Recognizing the screen as a tremendous medium of influence for the good citizenship, the American Legion, both national officers and the ten thousand Legion post commanders throughout the country—are awaiting with keen interest the showing of "SKIN DEEP." Thomas H. Ince's great melodrama.
Carrying a strong plea for recognition of the country's obligation to former service men, especially to its disabled soldiers, this is one of the first picture productions in which Legion officials have officially and personally interested themselves. After a preview of "Skin Deep," in the past, Harford MacNider, national commander, sent cordial thanks to Mr. Ince
