Y. W. C. A. NOTES

The Y. W. C. A. held "Open House" Wednesday, Oct. 25th, all afternoon and evening and extended a welcome to the many who called to inspect the new headquarters. Many useful and substantial gifts were left as reminders by the callers. Light refreshments were served from the attractive dining room.

Bazaar

The Bazaar promoted by a few neighbors in the vicinity of Glencoe Ave. for the benefit of the Y. W. C. A. was held at the headquarters last Saturday afternoon and evening and netted over a hundred dollars toward equipment, which will be greatly appreciated by the association.

Much interest centered about the beautiful doll displayed in Rigdon's window which was donated by James Russell and dressed by his mother.

Promptly at nine o'clock according to previous arrangements James mounted the block and auctioned off the remaining articles commencing with the doll which went to Mr. H. C. Holabird as the highest bidder. Candy, cakes and fruit quickly followed. There are still a few articles in the way of dolls, doll clothes, bibs and toilet articles that can be seen at the headquarters.

The Junior Girl Reserves had a very enjoyable Halloween Party Friday evening at the conclusion of which they reorganized the Girl Reserves with twenty members, temporary officers were elected and the meetings set for Thursday afternoon after school. Mrs. P. D. Carey is the adviser of this most interesting group of grade school girls.

The November meeting of the Mother's club will be held Tuesday evening, Nov. 7th at the Headquarters, corner of Grain Bay Road and Central Ave.

The address of the evening will be given by Mrs. Geo. B. Cummings formerly of Highland Park but now of Waukegan who has chosen for her subject the most interesting one of "The Childs View Point," those who know Mrs. Cummings are assured that it will be most worthwhile.

Mrs. C. G. Alexander will furnish music and Mrs. Clyde Haeefe will give several readings. The entire program promising a very interesting evening.

A Y. W. C. A. Institute will be held in Waukegan Nov. 15 and 16, at the Y. W. C. A. headquarters, 519 S. Sheridan Road—formerly the Jolly Tar Club.

It will open Wednesday afternoon Nov. 15, and will close Thursday evening Nov. 16.

Problems affecting town associations will be discussed, as the Institute is for the four Y. W. C. A.'s that are facing the same difficulties and are quite close together, Highland Park, Lake Forest, Waukegan and Waukesha, Wis.

Board members, volunteer workers, and senior members of the Y. W. C. A. are urged to attend these meetings.

Posters

Two very handsome posters have been made for the Y. W. C. A. this week giving attractive publicity to the educational classes. The one made by Mrs. E. Gourley adorns the wall of the cafeteria and the one by Junior Croke is at the headquarters.
